

Bible. - App^s. THE [Miscellaneous]
HOLY BIBLE
ABRIDGED:
OR, THE HISTORY
OF THE
OLD and NEW TESTAMENT
ILLUSTRATED
With Notes, and adorned with CUTS.
For the Use of CHILDREN.

Suffer little Children to come unto me; and forbidd them not. LUKE XVIII. 16.

L O N D O N:

Printed for T. CAERNAN and F. NEWBURY, Junior, No. 69, in St. Paul's Church-Yard; but not for F. Newbery at the Corner of Ludgate-street, who has no Share in the sale. Mr. JOHN NEWBURY's Books for Children. 1773. — [Price Six pence bound.]

* * The Public are desired to observe,
* that F. Newbery, at the Corner of St. Paul's Church Yard and Ludgate-Street, has not the least Concern in any of the late Mr. John Newbery's Entertaining Books for Children; and to prevent having paltry Compilations obtruded on them, instead of Mr. John Newbery's useful Publications, they are desired to be particularly careful to apply for them to T. Carnan and F. Newbery, jun. (Successors to the late Mr. John Newbery) at No.
65, near the Bar in St. Paul's Church Yard.

TO THE
PARENTS, GUARDIANS, AND GOVERNESSES,
OF
GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND,
THIS HISTORY
OF THE
OLD and NEW TESTAMENT

Is humbly inscribed,

By their most obedient humble Servant,

THE AUTHOR.

William
William Edwards
Jan^y the 8 1753

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

T H E
P R E F A C E

A circular ornament made of stylized leaves and flowers, with the letter 'T' in the center.

THE Author's Design in this Publication is evidently to give Children
such a Taste of the Writings of the Holy Penman, as may engage them earnestly and seriously in the Study of the Sacred Books of the Old and New Testament.

To forward them in this laudable and pious Pursuit, he has selected such Portions of the Scriptures as are both instructive and entertaining; such as will not only feed the Fancy, but mend the Heart, and establish in the Mind those unalterable Laws of the DEITY, which lead us to the Knowledge of Himself, which cement us together in Society, and on which our Happiness both in this Life and the next must absolutely depend.

To render this little Book the more pleasing to Children, it is embellished with a great Number of Cuts; and, that it may be useful to those more advanced in Years, the Chronology of the most remarkable Events

P R E F A C E. vii

Events is preserved, and such Notes interspersed as he had Reason to apprehend would be useful.

This is the Author's Design, which, he is persuaded, every good Christian will approve; and he hopes that he has been careful to execute it in such a Manner, as to spare himself the Pains of an Apology to the Public.

THE F. A. C. E.

I have a pleasure in informing you that the proceedings of the committee have been completed.

This is the first time
that the committee has been able to report to the assembly. The committee has been very busy in the past few months and has been able to complete the work
assigned to it.

T H E
C O N T E N T S.
P A R T I.

The OLD TESTAMENT.

CHAP. I.	Page
TREATING of GOD.	1

CHAP. II.
Of the CREATION.	2

CHAP. III.
Of the Garden of EDEN.	12

CHAP. IV.
Of ADAM and EVE in Paradise, their Fall and Expulsion.	15

CONTENTS.

CHAP. V.

The Consequences of the FALL. 18

CHAP. VI.

Of the FLOOD. 21

CHAP. VII.

The World divided amongst NOAH's three Sons, and the Building of the Tower of BABEL.

CHAP. VIII.

The Birth and Call of ABRAHAM, and the Promises made to him.—Sodom and Gomorrhah destroyed.—ISAAC born. 26

CHAP. IX.

Of JOSEPH and his Brethren. 31

CHAP. X.

The Oppression of the Children of ISRAEL in Egypt, and their Deliverance from thence 45

CONTENTS.

CHAP. XI.

PHAROAH and his Host drowned in the Red-Sea.—The Murmurings of the Israelites. 50

CHAP. XII.

The Law published on Mount Sinai. 54

CHAP. XIII.

Of the Brazen Serpent.—The Story of Balaam and his Ass. 59

CHAP. XIV.

The Israelites pass through Jordan, and take Jericho.—The Sun and Moon stand still.—The History of Samson.—Saul anointed King.—The Story of David and Goliath.—The Reign of David. 65

CHAP. XV.

SOLOMON'S Wisdom. His Judgment between the two Harlots. The Building and

CONTENTS.

*and Dedication of the Temple.—History of the Prophets ELIJAH and ELISHA.
—JEZEBEL eaten by Dogs.* 86

CHAP. XVI.

JONAH in the Whale's Belly.—Shadrach, Meshech, and Abednego cast into a fiery Furnace,—DANIEL in the Lions Den.—The Jewish History brought down to the Birth of CHRIST. 99

PART

CONTENTS.

PART II.

The NEW TESTAMENT.

CHAP. I.

THE Birth of CHRIST. The Angel appears to the Shepherds. The Adoration of the MAGI.—CHRIST disputes with the Doctors in the Temple. 113

CHAP. II.

CHRIST baptiz'd by JOHN. Enters upon his Ministry. His Sermon on the Mount. 122

CHAP. III.

CHRIST restores the Widow's Son to Life. He stilleth the Tempest.—JOHN the Baptist

CONTENTS.

Baptist beheaded.—Five Thousand fed with Five Loaves and two Fishes.—CHRIST walks on the Sea, and St. PETER comes to meet him. 131

CHAP. IV.

The Good Samaritan.—The Prodigal Son.—Dives and Lazarus. 140

CHAP. V.

Lazarus raised from the Dead.—CHRIST rides to Jerusalem on an Ass.—The Institution of the Lord's Supper.—CHRIST betrayed by Judas, carried before Caiphas, and denied by Peter. 147

CHAP. VI.

The Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension of CHRIST. 154

CHAP. VII.

The Descent of the HOLY GHOST.—Ananias and Sapphira struck dead for telling a Lie.—St. STEPHEN stoned. 161

CONTENTS.

CHAP. VIII.

*The miraculous Conversion of St. PAUL.—
St. PETER delivered out of Prison by an
Angel.—St. PAUL shipwrecked.* 167

CHAP. IX.

Of the LAST JUDGMENT. 174

THE

C. T. J. H. G. C.

212, 213

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

201 443

12-1-19

T H E
H I S T O R Y
O F T H E
H O L Y B I B L E.

C H A P. I.

Treating of G O D.

OD is in himself from Eternity to Eternity, without Beginning and without End, the most perfect and blessed Being: In his Substance, spiritual and eternal; in his Person, Three united in one; in his Name, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; in his Will, holy, just, merciful and true; in Power, omnipotent; in Wisdom, incomprehensible; a Light unto which none can approach, yet all in all; omnipresent

B

The HISTORY of God in every Place; the highest Good,
and the only inexhaustible Fountain of all Goodness; the Creator of all Things,
and the Director, Protector, Preserver,
and Sustainer of them all.

C H A P. II.
Of the CREATION.

IN the Beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth. And the Earth was without Form and void, and Darkness was upon the Face of the Deep;

the HOLY BIBLE.

3

Deep ; and the Spirit of God moved upon the Face of the Waters. And God said, Let there be Light ; and there was Light. And God saw the Light, that it was good : and God divided the Light from the Darkness. And God called the Light Day, and the Darkness he called Night : and the Evening and the Morning were the first Day.

And God said, Let there be a Firmament in the Midst of the Waters, and let

B 2

it

it divide the Water from the Waters,
And God made the Firmament, and divided the Waters which were under the Firmament from the Waters which were above the Firmament: and it was so.
And God called the Firmament Heaven:
and the Evening and the Morning were the second Day.

And God said, Let the Waters under the Heaven be gathered together unto one

one Place, and let the dry Land appear :
and it was so. And God called the dry Land Earth, and the gathering together
of the Waters called the Seas : and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the Earth bring forth Grass, the Herb yielding Seed, and the Fruit tree yielding Fruit after his Kind, whose Seed is in itself upon the Earth : and it was so. And the Earth brought forth Grass, and Herb yielding Seed after his Kind, and the Tree yielding Fruit, whose Seed was in itself, after his Kind :
and God saw that it was good. And the Evening and the Morning were the third Day.

And God said, Let there be Lights in the Firmament of the Heaven to divide the Day from the Night : and let them be for Signs, and for Seasons, and for Days and Years. And let them be for Lights in the Firmament of the Heaven, to give Light upon the Earth : and it was so. And God made two great Lights ; the greater Light to rule the Day, and the lesser Light to rule the Night ;

Night: he made the Stars also. And God set them in the Firmament of the Heaven to give Light upon the Earth, and to rule over the Day and over the Night, and to divide the Light from the Night, and to divide the Light from the Darkness: and God saw that it was good. And the Evening and the Morning were the fourth Day.*

* The Inspired Author of this Account of the Creation hath told us before, under the first Day's Creation, Gen. i. 5. that God said, Let there be Light, and there was Light; whence we may reasonably conclude, that the Sun, Moon, and Stars were then created, tho' the chaos might not be sufficiently separated and disposed to render them distinct; and if so, this Portion of Scripture can only mean that the Air being perfectly freed from those thick Vapours that had from the first Day obscured these glorious Luminaries, they on the fourth Day appeared to the Earth in all their Splendor and Magnificence.

And God said, let the Waters bring forth abundantly the moving Creature that hath Life, and Fowl that may fly above the Earth in the open Firmament of Heaven. And God created great Whales, and every living Creature that moveth, which the Waters brought forth abundantly after their Kind, and every winged Fowl after his Kind: and God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, tiply, and fill the Waters in the Seas, and let Fowl multiply in the Earth. And the Evening and the Morning were the fifth Day.

And God said, Let the Earth bring forth the living Creatures after his Kind, Cattle and creeping Thing, and Beast of the Earth after his Kind; and it was so. And God made the Beast of the Earth after his Kind, and Cattle after their Kind, and every Thing that creepeth eth upon the Earth after his Kind: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let us make Man in our Image, after our Likeness: and let him have Dominion over the Fish of the Sea, and over the Fowl of the Air, and over Cattle, and over all the Earth, and over every creeping Thing that creepeth upon the Earth. So God created Man in his own Image, in the Image of God created he him: Male and Female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the Earth, and subdue it; and have Dominion over the Fish of the Sea, and over the Fowl of the Air, and over every living Thing that creepeth upon the Earth. And God said, Behold I have given you every Herb bearing Seed, which is upon the Face of all the Earth, and every Tree, in the which is the Fruit of a Tree yielding yielding Seed: to you it shall be for Meat. And to every Beast of the Earth, and to every Fowl of the Air, and to every Thing that creepeth upon the Earth, wherein there is Life, I have given every green Herb for Meat: and it was so. And God saw every Thing that he had made and behold it was very good. And the Evening and the Morning were the sixth Day *.

* Tho' Moses makes no Mention of the Angelic Hosts in his Account of the Creation, yet the Expositors of the Scriptures are of Opinion that other Places in Holy Writ sufficiently intimate that those Myriads of Angels, which stand before the Throne of God, were on the first Day created with the Light. And these God hath formed spiritual amicable Beings, whose Natures we cannot comprehend.

C H A P. III.

Of the Garden of EDEN.

THUS the Heavens and the Earth were finished, and all the Host of them. And on the seventh Day God ended his Work which he had made; and God blessed the seventh Day, and sanctified it, because that in it he had rested * from all his Work, the Creation of all Things being finished, and the Work entirely made. And the Lord God formed Man (that he made) of the Dust of the Ground, and breathed into his Nostrils the Breath of Life; and

* The Resting of God being spoken after the Manner of Men, implieth not any Weariness in him, for the Creator of the Ends of the Earth fainteth not, neither is he weary. Isa. xi. 28. It was by the Antients made a Symbol of the Rest of the Just from all their Labours; when all Grief, Sorrow, and Sighing shall fly away, and God shall be in all.

Man

Man became a living Soul. And the Lord God planted a Garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the Man whom he had formed. And out of the Ground made the Lord God to grow every Tree that is pleasant to the Sight, and good for Food; the Tree of Life also in the Midst of the Garden, and the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. And a River went out of Eden to water the Garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four Heads. The Name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole Land of Havilah, where there is Gold. And the Name of the second River is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole Land of Ethiopia. And the Name of the third River is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the East of Affyria. And the fourth River is Euphrates. And the Lord God took the Man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

And

And the Lord God commanded the Man saying, Of every Tree of the Garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the Day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die. And the Lord God said, It is not good that the Man should be alone; I will make him an Help meet for him, And out of the Ground the Lord God formed every Beast of the Field, and every Fowl of the Air, and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living Creature, that was the Name thereof. And Adam gave Names to all Cattle, and to the Fowl of the Air, and to every Beast of the Field; but for Adam there was not found an Help meet for him. And the Lord God caused a deep Sleep to fall upon Adam; and he took one of his Ribs, and closed up the Flesh instead thereof. And the Rib, which
the

the Lord God had taken from Man, made he a Woman, and brought her unto the Man. And Adam said, This is now Bone of my Bones, and Flesh of my Flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

CHAP. IV.

Of Adam and Eve in Paradise, their Fall and Expulsion.

OUR first Parents thus placed in the Garden of Eden, or Terrestrial Pa- radise,

Eden, were perfectly happy, as they were perfectly innocent. Whilst they continued obedient to the Divine Command, their Bliss was uninterrupted, all Nature smiled around them; and, as they knew no Sin, though they were both naked, they were not ashamed. But they did not long enjoy the Comforts of this delightful Situation; for the subtle Serpent, (the Devil) by his artful Insinuations, prevailed on the Woman to eat of the forbidden Fruit, which having tasted, she gave unto her Husband. And he did eat also. By this Transgression of the Law of God, they lost their Innocence and Happiness together: Their Eyes were opened; they became sensible of their Nakedness; and, conscious of their Guilt, endeavoured to hide themselves from the Presence of their offended Creator amongst the Trees of the Garden. But this was a vain Attempt, and equally vain were their Excuses: The Man laying the Blame on the Woman, and the Woman on the Serpent. Hereupon the Lord pronounced a heavy Curse upon the Serpent, by whose Wiles Sin and Death were thus introduced into the World; but in the Midst of his Anger, taking Pity on fallen Man, he immediately promised that the Seed of the Woman should bruise the Serpent's Head; by which is understood, that Mankind should be delivered from Sin, from Death and from the Power of the Devil, by JESUS CHRIST, who should be born of a Virgin. For Eve's Disobedience, God passed this Sentence upon her, I will multiply thy Sorrow and thy Conception; in Sorrow shalt thou bring forth Children and thy Desire shall be to thy Husband, and he shall rule over thee. And unto Adam he said, Cursed is the Ground for thy Sake; in Sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the Days of thy Life. Thorns also and Thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat
Man

C
the

the Herb of the Field. In the Sweat of thy Face shalt thou eat Bread, till thou returnest unto the Ground; for out of it wast thou taken, for Dust thou art, and unto Dust shalt thou return. Then were the fallen Pair driven from their Seat of Bliss and exposed to Hardships, Sorrow, Sickness, and Death itself; which are likewise the just Lot of all their sinful Posterity.

CHAPTER V.

The Consequences of the Fall.

THE Seed of Sin, being sown in our first Parents, soon shewed its fatal Effects in their immediate Offspring and afterwards in their most remote Descendants; for Satan, having but too well succeeded in his first Attempts upon the Innocence of Man, unweariedly pursued the Advantages he had gained, in order to involve the whole human Race in

in Misery and Destruction. A melancholy Instance of this we have in the Story of Cain and Abel, the Sons of Adam and Eve. The former, who was a Husbandman, brought of the Fruit of the Ground an Offering unto the Lord; and Abel, who was a Shepherd, brought also of the Firstlings of his Flock, and of the Fat thereof. But Cain (whose Heart was full of Hatred and Envy) finding his Offering not so acceptable to God as that of Abel, was very wroth, and meditated Revenge on his innocent Brother. Accordingly when they were together in the Field, he took the Opportunity, and rose up against him and slew him: But the Blood of righteous Abel crying from the Ground for Vengeance, God condemned Cain to be a Fugitive and a Vagabond in the Earth; setting a Mark upon him that none might slay him, so that he might live to bear the Stings of a wounded Conscience.

However, though Sin began to reign in the World so early, God was known to and worshipped by the Patriarchs, especially by the Family of Seth, one of the Sons of Adam. And amongst these Patriarchs the Scripture mentions Enoch; who walked with God, and God took him out of the World, so that he died not; thereby remarkably rewarding his eminent Piety and Goodness, and pointing out to Mankind a State of Futurity. But in Process of Time the Posterity of Seth was corrupted likewise and mingled with the Wicked; insomuch that the World was filled with Violence, and the Corruption was so great and general, that God determined to destroy the whole Race of Man by the Flood, except righteous Noah and his Family. To this Purpose God commanded Noah to build an Ark, in which he and his Wife, his three Sons, (Shem, Ham and Japheth) and their Wives, and the Male and Female of

of every Species of Fowls, Cattle, and creeping Things, should be preserved
from the universal Deluge.

CHAP. VI.

Of the FLOOD.

IT was in the Year of the World 1656
before Christ 2346 and the 600th
of Noah's Age, that he and his Family, and the several Kinds of Animals, as God had had commanded, entered into the Ark, which had been a hundred Years in building. This being done, the Fountains of the great Deep were broke up, the Windows of Heaven were opened, and such violent Rains poured down for forty Days and forty Nights, that the Waters arose fifteen Cubits above the highest Mountains, and both Man, Cattle, creeping Things, and the Fowls of the Heaven were destroyed, and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the Ark. When the Waters were considerably abated, the Ark rested on the Mountains of Ararat; and having continued there several Months, Noah sent forth a Raven, which went to and fro; and after that a Dove, which finding no Resting-Place, came back to the Ark, and he took her in. Seven Days afterwards he sent out the Dove, which returned with an Olive Leaf in her Mouth: and having waited seven Days longer he sent sent forth the same Dove, but she returned no more; by which he knew that the Waters were dried from off the Earth. God then commanded Noah to come out of the Ark, with his Family and the living Creatures, in which they had been shut up, according to our Account of Time, from the 29th of October to the 8th of November the following Year, that is, one Year and ten Days.—

Man's Life is now shortened.

C H A P. VII.

*The World divided amongst Noah's three Sons, and the Building of the Tower of
BABEL.*

NOAH began the New World by building an Altar to the Lord; and he took of every clean Beast and every clean Fowl, and offered Burnt-Offerings on the Altar. The Almighty accepted his Sacrifice, graciously promising that while the Earth remaineth, Seed-time and Harvest, and Cold and Heat, and Summer and Winter, and Day and Night, shall not cease. And God set his Bow in the Clouds, (the Rainbow) in Token of an everlasting Covenant he made with Noah and all his Posterity, that he would never more destroy the World by a Deluge.

Sixty-seven Years after the Flood Heber, a Descendant of Shem, was born; from him came the Hebrews and the Hebrew Language. About this Time Hebron, afterwards the Metropolis of Judah, was built. A hundred Years after the Flood, Noah divided the Earth among his three Sons, Judah, had the West of Asia, from the Mountains Taurus and Anan, and all Europe. Ham had all Arabia, and all Africa. Shem had all the Eastern Asia. Fourteen Years after the Earth was partitioned out among the Sons of Noah, Nimrod, the Grandson of Ham, laid the Foundation of the Babylonish lonish or Assyrian Monarchy. And the World being now pretty well replenished with Inhabitants they began to build the City and Tower of Babel, vainly attempting to raise its Walls to the very Skies, in hopes of rendering their Names immortal. But God soon baffled their impious Project, by confounding their Language so that they could not understand each other: and thence the Tower was called Babel, which signifies Confusion. The one Language of the World was now divided into seventy-two Sorts (the Hebrew remaining in the Posterity of Heber) and the Distractions arising from hence not only put a Stop to the Building, but occasioned their Dispersion over the Face of the Earth. — The City of Babylon, in some Time, under another Prince, became the Metropolis of Chaldea. And soon after Ninveh, the Metropolis of Syria, was built.

C H A P. VIII.

The Birth and Call of ABRAHAM, and the Promises made to him. Sodom and Gomorrah destroyed. Isaac born

THREE Hundred and Fifty-two Years after the Flood, and the next after Noah's Death, the great Patriarch Abraham was born, the Father of the Jewish Nation, and (in a spiritual Sense)

Sense) of all the Faithful, When he was seventy-five Years of Age, God was pleased to call him out of his native Country to go into the Land of Canaan which he promised to give to his Descendants; that he would make of him a great Nation, and that in him should all the Families of the Earth be blessed: as from him according to the Flesh, should descend the Messiah, the Saviour of the World.

About the 27th Year of his Age, Salem (afterwards called Jerusalem) situated in the Centre of Judaea, was built by Melchisedech; and in the 99th Year of Abraham the Sacrament of Circumcision was given to him and his Posterity.

Now Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, were for their abominable Sins destroyed by Fire and Brimstone from Heaven; only the righteous Lot, with his Wife and Daughters, were brought out of it by two Angels, whom Lot had enter-

entertained: but his Wife for looking back after her Escape, was turned into a Pillar of Salt.

In Abraham's 100th Year and Sarah's 90th, Isaac was born. Fifty Years after which the Patriarch Shem died, A. M. 2158. From thence it is evident, that the whole Series of Things, from the Creation to this Time, might be orally transmitted down in three Lives only.

For

For as Isaac was fifty Years contemporary with Shem, so Shem, was ninety-seven with Metuselah; and he 244 with Adam. Metuselah died but the Year before the Deluge; and 'tis very natural to believe, that he discoursed often with his Grandson Noah and his Son on the Subjects of the Creation and Fall, as he had received the same from Adam. When Isaac was twenty-five Years old, God, in Trial of Abraham's Faith and Obedience, commanded him to offer up this his only Son. The good Man without any Hesitation, complied with the divine Command; but just as he was about to slay Isaac, the Angel of the Lord called to him to desist; and Abraham looking about him saw a Ram caught by the Horns in a Thicket, which he offered up instead of his Son. Abraham having lived to the Age of 175 Years, gave up the Ghost, and his Sons Isaac and Ishmael, buried him in the Cave of Marpelab, which he had purchased for a Family-Sepulchre, and where he himself had buried Sarah his Wife.

In the 60th Year of Isaac's Age Jacob was born, who was the Father of Joseph, whose affecting History is the Subject of the following Chapter.

C H A P. IX.

Of JOSEPH and his Brethren.

THE Patriarch Jacob had twelve Sons, who were the Heads of the twelve Tribes or Families of the Children of Israel. Their Names were Ruben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zabulon, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Joseph and Benjamin. Of all these Sons he had the greatest Affection for Joseph and Benjamin, but the former was his peculiar Favourite, and accordingly distinguished from the rest by gay and party-coloured Apparel. This raised the Envy of his Brethren; but what increased their Disgust was, that Joseph, having always the Ear of his indulgent Father, was very officious in telling him their Faults, or any little Stories to their Disadvantage. Thus he became the Object of their mortal Hatred; which was still more

more aggravated by his telling them two remarkable Dreams; The one, that as they were binding Sheaves in the Field, his Sheaf arose and stood in the Midst of theirs, and that theirs made Obeisance to his Sheaf. The other, that the Sun, Moon, and eleven Stars made Obeisance to him, Both which seemed to portend his future Advancement and Grandeur, and their being obliged to bow down before him.

Hereupon they determined to destroy him; and having a favourable Opportunity when thy were feeding their Father's Flocks in a distant Part of the Country, they conspired together to kill him, and to report that some wild Beast had devoured him, and then (said they in Derision) we shall see what will become of his Dreams. But Reuben dissuaded them from their cruel Purpose, saying to them, Shed no Blood, but cast him into this Pit in the Wilderness; intending afterwards terwards privately to carry him again to his Father. Accordingly they cast him into the Pit, as Reuben advised, having first stripped him of his Coat of many Colours, and sat down to eat Bread. Whilst they were thus regaling themselves, they spied a Company of Merchants advancing towards them; upon which they went and drew Joseph out of the Pit, and sold him for twenty Pieces of Silver. This was done in the Absence of Reuben, who returning to the Pit, and not finding Joseph there, rent his Cloaths, and coming to his Brethren, cried out, the Child is not, and I, whither shall I go? They then formed a Scheme to conceal their Guilt and deceive their aged Father; to which Purpose they killed a Kid, and having dipped Joseph's Coat in the Blood, they carried it home to Jacob: upon Sight of which the poor Man, not suspecting any Fallacy, but concluding that his darling Son was torn in Pieces by some wild Beast, burst into Tears, and mourned many Days, refusing to be comforted.

D of

The Merchants who had bought Joseph, carried him to the Court of Pharaoh King of Egypt, and there sold him to Potiphar, a Captain of the Guards. This Officer observing that Joseph was very careful and industrious, and that every Thing prospered in his Hand, advanced

the HOLY BIBLE.

vanced him to be Steward over all his Household; and for Joseph's Sake the Blessing of the Lord was upon all that Potiphar had, in the House, and in the Field.

Now Joseph being a very comely Youth, his Mistress was so charmed with his Person, that she endeavoured, Time after Time, to allure him to her Bed; but his Virtue was Proof against all her amorous Solicitations. Upon this unexpected Coldness, her Love was turned to Hatred; and having falsely accused him to her Husband of an insolent Attempt to rob her of her Honour, the too credulous Potiphar, without further Enquiry, confined him in the King's Prison.

Joseph had not been long there, before he gave such Evidences of his Wisdom and Virtue, that the Keeper treated him with great Indulgence. He had a peculiar Talent at interpreting Dreams, of which the Instances of Pharaoh's chief Butler and Baker are a sufficient Proof;

and in Process of Time he had an Opportunity of shewing it to Pharaoh himself, whose remarkable Dreams concerning the fat and lean Kine, and the full and thin Ears of Corn, gave him great Uneasiness, none of his learned Magicians being able to interpret them, or give him any Satisfaction. This occasioned the chief Butler to remember Joseph, and he recommended him to Pharaoh, who sent for him out of Prison, and related to him his Dreams. Having heard them, he assured the King, that the seven fat Kine, and the seven full Ears of Corn, denoted seven Years of Plenty; and that the seven lean Kine, and the seven thin Ears, signified seven Years of Famine; advising him to fill all the Store-houses with Corn during the first seven Years, that he might supply the Wants of his People during the following Years of Scarcity, and thereby gain immense Sums of Money. In a Word, Joseph's Scheme was highly ap-

approved of, and himself appointed to put in it Execution, being made Steward of Pharaoh's Household, and Ruler next to the King over all the Land of Egypt.

As Joseph had foretold, the seven Years of Plenty were followed by seven Years of Famine, which extended as far as the Land of Canaan, where Jacob lived, who, hearing of the Store laid up in Egypt, sent all his Sons thither (except Benjamin) to buy Corn for their Subsistence. When Joseph saw his Brethren, he knew them, but made himself strange, and spake roughly to them, saying Whence come ye? and they answered, From the Land of Canaan to buy Food, but he told them they were Spies and were come to see the Nakedness of the Land. And they replied, Nay, my Lord, we are no Spies; thy Servants are twelve Brethren, the Son of one Man in the Land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this Day with our Father, and one is not. Well, said Joseph,

Joseph, Hereby ye shall be proved: for by the Life of Pharoah ye shall not go forth hence except your youngest Brother come hither. Send out of you, and let him fetch your Brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your Words may be proved. Having confined them for three Days, he made them another Proposal: If ye be true Men, (saide he) let one of your Brethren be bound in the House of our Prison; and go ye, carry Corn for the Famine of your Houses. But bring your youngest Brother unto me; so shall your Words be verified, and ye shall not die. In this Situation they began to reflect on their ill Treatment of Joseph, Saying, We are verily guilty concerning our Brother in that when he besought us we would not hear; therefore is this Distress come upon us.

These Words were spoken in the Presence of Joseph, but his Brethren knew not that he understood them; for he conversed with them by an Interpreter. And be

he turned himself from them and wept; and returning to them again, took Simson and bound him before their Eyes. He then gave Orders to fill their Sacks with Corn, to put each Man's Money into his Sack, and to give them Provisions for their Journey. This done, they departed; and one of them on the Road, having opened his Sack to give his Ass Provender, espied his Money, and shewed it to his Brethren; at which they were very much surprised and frightened. However they pursued their Journey, and came to Jacob, and told him all that had befallen them; particularly that the Lord of the Country had detained Simson, and insisted on their bringing their Brother Benjamin into Egypt. This was melancholy News to the good old Man, and drew from him this Complaint; My have ye bereaved of my Children; Joseph is not, and Simson is not, and ye will take Benjamin also. To which he added,

My Son shall not go with you, for if Mischief befall him by the Way, ye will bring down my grey Hairs with Sorrow to the Grave.

At length, however, when their Corn was all consumed, and the Famine was still sore in the Land, Jacob was prevailed upon by Judah's Promises to bring Benjamin safe home again, to let him go down with his Brethren into Egypt;
and for fear it was owing to some Mistake that they brought back the Money in their Sacks, he now ordered them to take double the Quantity, together with a handsome Present for the Lord of the Country. As soon as Joseph was acquainted with their Arrival, he ordered a Dinner to be provided for them at his own House, and Simeon was released from his Confinement. When Joseph came in, they brought him their Presents in the most submissive Manner, bowing themselves to the Earth; but he was so af-

affected at the Sight of Benjamin, that he retired into his Chamber and wept. At Dinner-time he returned to them again; and having placed them according to their Seniority, he sent Messes to each of them, but Benjamin's Mess was five times as big as any of the rest.

Joseph having thus entertained his Brethren, commanded his Steward to fill their Sacks with Corn, and put each Man's Money into his Sack's Mouth, and his Silver Cup, into the Sack belonging to Benjamin. In the Morning they set out with their Asses, but had not got far from the City, when a Messenger overtook them, who accused them with stealing the Cup. They all denied the Charge, saying, God forbid thy Servants should do this Thing; and put the Matter upon this Issue, With whomsoever of thy Servants it be found, let him die, and we will be my Lord's Bond-men. Search being made, the Cup was found in Benjamin's

min's Sack; whereupon they rent their Cloaths, and returned to the City; and being come to Joseph's House, they fell down before him on the Ground. And Joseph said, What Deed is this that ye have done? And Judah answered, What shall we say unto our Lord, or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out our Iniquity and we are thy bond-slaves. But Joseph replied, God forbid! The Man with whom the Cup is found shall be my Servant; but as for you, get you up in Peace unto your Father. Then Judah represented to him with what Difficulty he had persuaded Jacob to part with Benjamin; and that he was obliged to become Surety for the Lad to his Father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee again, then will I bear the Blame for ever. Therefore I pray that let thy Servant be a Bond-slave instead of the Lad, and let him go up with his Brethren; for how shall I go to my Father, and the Lad be not with me? If I do, he will surely die.

Joseph

Joseph could now no longer refrain, but ordered every Man out of the Room before he made himself known to his Brethren. And he wept aloud, and said, I am Joseph; Dost my Father yet live? At this they were astonished, and could not answer him, for they were troubled at his Presence. He then desired them to come near to him, and said: I am Joseph your Brother whom ye sold into Egypt. Now therefore be not grieved nor angry with yourselves that ye sold me hither; for it was not you that sent me, but God sent me before you to preserve Life. Haste ye to my Father, and say unto him: Thus saith thy Son Joseph, God hath made me Lord of all Egypt; come down unto me, tarry not. And thou shalt dwell in the Land of Goshen, and there will I nourish thee, lest thou and thy Household come to Poverty; for there are yet five Years of Famine. Behold, your Eyes see, and the Eyes of my Brother Benjamin, that it is my Mouth that speaketh.

ask unto you. And he fell upon Benjamin's Neck and wept, and Benjamin wept upon his Neck. Moreover he kissed all his Brethren, and wept upon them; after which they talked freely together.

*Pharaoh was pleased when he heard of this pathetic Interview, and ordered Joseph to send Waggon's along with his Brethren, to bring their Father, their Wives, and Children into Egypt. And Joseph did so, giving them Provisions for the Way; and sent his Father twenty Asses laden with the good Things of the Land. But when they came to Jacob, and told him that Joseph was yet alive, and Governor over all the Land of Egypt, his Heart fainted, for he believed them not. However, when he had heard their whole Message, and saw the Waggon's that were sent to carry him down, his Spirit revived, and he said, It is enough, Joseph my Son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die. So Jacob and all*

all his Family set out for Egypt: and Joseph went in his Chariot to meet his Father, and fell on his Neck; and wept greatly, and Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy Face, and thou art yet alive, Oh my Son!

CHAPTER X.

The Oppression of the Children of Israel in Egypt, and their Deliverance from thence.

BY the express Order of Pharaoh, the Children of Israel (who were seventy in Number) were seated in the Land of Goshen, the most fertile Part of Egypt; where the good Patriarch Jacob lived seventeen Years, and then died, at the Age of a hundred and forty-seven. His Body being embalmed, was carried into the Land of Canaan to be buried with his Ancestors; Joseph and his Brethren thren, with the Servants of Pharaoh, the Elders of his House, and the Elders of the Land of Egypt, attending the Solemnity. Joseph died fifty-eight Years after his Father, being a hundred and ten Years old.

The Israelites now increased and multiplied so exceedingly, that Pharaoh, (a new King who knew not Joseph) being afraid they would grow too powerful endeavoured to destroy them. With this View he set Task-masters over them, who made their Lives bitter with hard Bondage, in Mortar, and in Brick, and in all Manner of Service in the Field; but the more they were afflicted, the more they multiplied and grew. This rigorous Treatment not having the intended Effect, Pharaoh ordered the Hebrew Midwives to kill all the Male Children of the Israelites, as soon as they were born; but the Midwives disobeying this wicked Command, he charged his own People to execute his cruel Purpose, saying, Every Son that is born ye shall cast into the River, and every Daughter ye shall save alive.

Now the Wife of a certain Levite being delivered of a fine Boy, she concealed him for three Months; but finding she could not hide him any longer, she put him into an Ark of Bulrushes, and laid him in the Flage by the River's Brink, trusting the Event to Providence. In this Con-

Condition the Babe was found by Pharaoh's Daughter, who took Compassion on him, employe his own Mother to nurse him, and afterwards kept him as her own Son, giving him the Name of Moses.

When the Foundling, thus providentially preserved, was grown up to a State of Manhood, he went out to his Brethren, and looked on their Burthens; and seeing an Egyptian strike an Hebrew, he killed the Egyptian, and buried him in the Sand. This coming to the Ears of Pharaoh, Moses was obliged to fly into the Land of Midian, where he married; and as he was keeping the Flocks of Yiters his Father-in-law, God appeared to him in a burning Bush, told him that he had seen the Afflictions of his People in Egypt and sent him to be their Deliverer. Accordingly he carried the Divine Message to Pharaoh, and having (with his Brother Aaron) wrought many Miracles, and

the HOLY BIBLE.

49

and smote Egypt with ten Plagues, he at length forced the hardened King to let the Israelites depart out of his Territories. This Event happened 430 Years after the Call of Abraham, 140 after Joseph's Death, in the Year of the World 2513. and 1491 Years before Jesus Christ.

The Evening before the Departure of the Israelites, the 14th Day of the first Month, (the Beginning of our May) God instituted the Feast of the Passover, or Eating the Paschal Lamb, to be kept yearly throughout their Generations for ever, in Commemoration of his passing by and sparing the Houses of the Israelites, when he destroyed all the First-born of the Egyptians.

Some Time whilst the Israelites were in Bondage, lived Job, a Man eminent for his Patience under Afflictions; the Account whereof is the Book that bears his Name, is generally believed to have been written by Moses, tho' some ascribe

The History of
 it to Elisha.

Pharaoh and his Host drowned in the Red Sea.—The Murmuring of the Is-RAELITES.

SOON after the Children of Israel
 were gone out of Egypt, Pharaoh's Heart was hardened, and he pursued

them

them with his whole Army; and coming up with them near the Red Sea, God was pleased to work their Deliverance in a very wonderful Manner, by dividing the Sea, so that the Israelites walked through it on dry Land, and the Egyptians that followed them were so totally overwhelmed by the Return of the Waters, that not one of the Host of Pharaoh remained alive.

This Miracle made an awful impression (as well it might) upon the Minds of the Israelites, who thereupon feared and believed the Lord, and his Servant Moses. But in a few Days they began to shew a murmuring discontented Spirit; first, at the bitter Waters of Marah, which were miraculously made sweet; and then in the Wilderness of Sin, where they complained for want of Bread, wishing they had died in Egypt, when they sat by the Flesh Pots, and did eat Bread to the full. To satisfy their Hunger, God was pleased to send a prodigious Flight of Quails, which covered their whole Camp, and the next Morning he rained Manna from Heaven, with which Bread he fed them during their forty Years Passage through the Wilderness.

After such signal Instances of the Goodness of the Almighty towards them one would imagine it impossible the Israelites should ever distrust his Providence

dence again: And yet in a short Time, when they were encamped at Rephidim
and found no Water, they murmured against Moses, and were almost ready to stone him. Hereupon God commanded

Moses to take his Rod, and smite the Rock in Horab; which he did in the Sight of the People, and the Water gushed out abundantly.

C H A P. XII.

The Law published on Mount Sinai.

FIFTY Days after the Departure of the Israelites out of Egypt, whilst they were encamped before Mount Sinai, God called Moses to the Top of the Mount; and, there, with the most awful Solemnity of Thunder, Lightning, and the Voice of the Trumpet, (which made all the People in the Camp tremble) delivered livered to him the Ten Commandments of the Law, written upon Two Tables of Stone*. The four first Commandments, which make the First Table, have an immediate Respect to God himself; and the six last Commandments, which make the Second Table, comprise the several Branches of Duty to Neighbour. They are here inserted in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus.

* It may not be improper to observe, That the Patriarchal State commences at the Beginning of the World, and continues till the Delivery of the Law. There are reckoned Ten Patriarchs before the Flood, viz. Adam, Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mabelahel, Jared, Enock, Methuselah, Lamech, and Noah. The Patriarchs after the Flood, were Shem, Arphaxad, Selah, Heber, Peleg, Rau, Serug, Nabor, Terah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: Who, with Jacob's twelve Sons, (more commonly distinguished by the Name of Patriarchs) make in all thirty-four.

TABLE
 of the
 Ten Commandments
 as they are delivered to Moses on Mount Sinai.

TABLE I.

I. Thou shalt have no other Gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven Image, nor the Likeness of any Thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the Iniquities of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me; and shew Mercy unto Thousand in them that love me, and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath Day. Six Days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but but the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: In it thou shalt do no Manner of Work, thou, and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-Servant, and thy Maid-Servant, thy Cattle, and the Stranger that is within thy Gates: For in six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh Day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh Day, and hallowed it.

TABLE II.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy Days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no Murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's bour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any Thing that is his.

The Year after the giving of the Law, God commanded the Tabernacle to be erected, and Sacrifices to be offered by the Priests upon the Altar; and appointed Aaron and his Sons to be set apart and consecrated to minister before him in the Priest's Office. The Ceremonial Law was also given; and the holy Utensils, the Priests Habits, and all Things belonging to the Levitical Service, were settled and regulated.

The Tabernacle consisted of two Parts, the Holy of Holies, and the Holy Place. Into the Holy of Holies, which was without the Veil, where stood the Ark covered with the Mercy-Seat, none might enter but the High-Priest, once a Year, Year, upon the great Day of Expiation, when he made an Atonement for the Sins of the People by sprinkling of Blood. In the Holy Place, without the Veil, stood the Golden Candlestick, the Altar of Incense, and the Table of Shew-Bread. And in the Court of the Tabernacle stood the Brazen Altar and the Laver.—— But, for a Particular Account of what relates to the ceremonial as well as political Laws, which the Israelites were to observe, we must refer to the Books of Moses themselves.

C H A P. XIII.

Of the BRAZEN SERPENT.—The Story of BALAAM and his Ass.

WE shall not follow the Israelites from Mount Sinai through their various Journeys and Encampments in the Wilderness, but bring them at once towards towards the Borders of the Promised Land. And even here, after they had been for so many Years miraculously nourished and preserved, they could not forbear giving a fresh Instance of their murmuring and perverse Disposition: For in Panon, (their 35th encampment) they loathed their Manna, and speak against God and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the Wilderness? for there is no Bread, neither is there any Water. Numb. xxi. 5. This provoked the Lord to send fiery Serpents among them, and they bit the People, so that great Numbers of them died; whereupon they besought Moses to intercede for them, that the fiery Serpents might be taken away. And God commended Moses to make a Serpent of Brass, and put it upon a Pole; which being done, whoever was bitten by a fiery Serpent, when he beheld the Serpent, and came to great grief and sorrow, etc. of 2012503

of Brass, be lived. The Brazen Serpent by looking upon which the wounded Israelites were healed, was a lively Type of Christ upon the Cross; by looking up to whom with an Eye of Faith, the wounded Sinner is saved from that Death which he must otherwise inevitably suffer.

In a few more Journeys the Israelites arrived at the Plains of Moab, where they encamped, on this Side the River Jordan.

Jordan, near Jericho. Their Numbers, and their Conquest of the Amorites, gave Balak, King of the Moabites, very uneasy Apprehensions for his own Dominions. Hereupon he sent for Balaam to come and curse the Israelites, not doubting but he might then attack them with Success, and drive them out of his Territories. But God commanded Balaam not to go along with the Messengers, nor to curse Israel, whom he himself had blessed. Balak, however, sent a second Message to Balaam, promising him great Honours and Rewards, if he would come and do what he desired. With these Messengers God permitted him to go, but with this Command, The Word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do. Upon this Balaam saddled his Ass, and set out with the Messengers; but as he was riding along, the Angel of the Lord stood in the Way with a drawn Sword in his Hand: which the Ass perceiving, turned turned aside, and Balaam smote her to keep her in the Road. A second Time, the Angel standing in a Path between two Walls, the Afs gave way, and crushed Balaam's Foot against the Wall; and he smote her again. The third Time, the Afs saw the Angel in a narrow Way, where there was no Room to turn either to the Right or to the Left; and then she fell down under Balaam, who was thereupon so enraged, that he smote her more severely than before. Then the Lord opened the Mouth of the Ass, and he said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee; that thou hast smitten me these three Times? And Balaam said unto the Ass, Behold, thou hast mocked me: I would there were a Sword in mine Hand, for now would I kill thee. And the Ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine Ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine, unto this Day? Was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay. Then the Lord opened the Eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel with his Sword drawn in his Hand, and he bowed down his Head, and fell flat on his Face, acknowledging that he had sinned; upon which the Angel permitted him to proceed on his Journey.

more

CHAP. XIV.

The Israelites pass through Jordan, and take Jericho. The Sun and Moon stand still. The History of SAMSON. SAUL anointed King. The Story of DAVID and GOLIATH. The Reign of DAVID.

IN the 36th Year of the Israelites sojourning in the Wilderness, Aaron died, and was succeeded in the High-Priesthood by his Son Eleazar. The next Day died Moses, having had a View of the promised Land from Mount Nebo, and was succeeded by Joshua in the Civil Government.

In the Year before Christ 1451. (to which Era the following Dates have Respect) Joshua conducted the Israelites through the River Jordan into Canaan; the Waters thereof being miraculously divided (like those of the Red Sea) to afford them a Passage on dry Land. The next

F

next Day, Circumcision was renewed, which Ceremony had been omitted during their forty Years Abode in the Wilderness. Soon after (when they began to eat the Corn of the Land) Manna ceased.

The Inhabitants of Canaan were now to be conquered and destroyed by the Israelites, that they themselves might possess the Country, according to the Divine Promise. Jericho was the first

Obstacle they met with; and God, being willing to shew them that they should not depend upon their own Strength for Victory, commanded the Ark of the Covenant to be carried seven Times round the City, preceded by seven Priests blowing Trumpets of Rams-Horns; and the seventh Time, upon a particular Signal, the People were ordered to give a loud Shout, at which the Walls of Jericho fell down to the Ground, and the Israelites entered the City, and put to the Sword Men, Women, and Children, sparing only the Harlot Rahab and her Family, according to the Promise of the Spies, whom she had concealed and saved from falling into the Hands of their Pursuers.

The City of Ai was soon after taken by Stratagem; and the Gibeonites having artfully made a League with the Israelites, Five Kings joined their Forces to besiege Gibon. Hereupon Joshua marched to the Relief of the Gibeonites; and falling unexpectedly on the confederate Army, he made a great Slaughter, and put the rest to Flight. Many were slain in the Pursuit, but a Shower of large Hailstones destroyed more than the Sword; and, at the Prayer of Joshua, the Sun and Moon stood still, till the Israelites

had completed their Victory, and fully avenged themselves upon their Enemies
The

The Five Kings escaped, and hid themselves in a Cave; but being discovered, they were brought out and hanged, and their Bodies thrown into the Cave where they had taken Refuge.

Joshua, pursuing his Victories, subdued many other Kings and Nations, and divided the promised Land among the Children of Israel. In 1444 the Tabernacle was set up at Shiloh; and in 1427 Joshua died, having governed Israel four and twenty Years.

After the Death of Joshua, the Israelites were governed by Judges, whom God raised up from Time to Time to deliver them from their Enemies. This Kind of Government began in the Year 1405, and continued till Saul was anointed King over Israel. The Names of the Judges were, 1. Othniel; 2. Ehud; 3. Deborah and Barak; 4. Gideon; 5. Abimelech; 6. Tolab; 7. Jair; 8. Jephthah; 9. Ibzan; 10. Elon; 11. Abdon; 12. Samson;

Jon; 13. Eli; 14; Samuel. Of these the most remarkable for their Exploits were Gideon and Samson; the former of whom, with only three hundred chosen Men, (according to God's Appointment) destroyed a numerous Army of Midianites, together with their Kings and Princes, and thereby entirely delivered Israel from their oppressive Yoke.

Samson, the Son of Manoah, was born at the Time the Philistines had Dominion over Israel, being ordained by God to begin their Deliverance, according to the Prediction of the Angel to his Mother, Judges xiii. 5. When he was grown up to Manhood, he cast his Eyes on one of the Daughters of the Philistines at Timnath, and desired his Father and Mother to procure her for his Wife. His Parents at first objected to his Choice, as being a Philistine; but finding him insit upon it, they agreed to accompany him to Timnath. In their Way thither, when

Samson

Samson was at some Distance from them, a young Lion roared against him. And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a Kid, and he had nothing in his Hand; but he told not his Father or Mother what he had done. So they proceeded on their Journey to Timnath, and the proposed

Marriage was agreed on by all Parties.
After

After some Time, when Samson returned to marry his Wife, he found a Swarm of Bees and Honey in the Carcase of the dead Lion; and at his Wedding Feast he propounded this Riddle to thirty young Men at the Table, viz. Out of the eater came forth Meat, and out of the strong came forth Sweetness; promising them thirty Changes of Raiment if they could explain it within seven Days; and if they could not, they were to make him the same Present. The fixed Time being almost elapsed, Samson's Wife prevailed on him to reveal the Secret to her, which she immediately communicated to her Countrymen. This so enraged Samson, that he slew thirty Philistines, and gave their Garments to those who had expounded the Riddle.

Samson being afterwards denied his Wife, whom her Father had given to another Man, resented it so highly, that he

he caught three hundred Foxes, and having tied them Tail to Tail, with Firebrands between each, he let them loose among the standing Corn of the Philistines, whereby it was burnt up, together with the Vineyards and Olives. This enraged the Philistines to such a Degree, that they burnt his Wife and his Father; which Cruelty Samson revenged, by making a great Slaughter amongst them.

These mutual Acts of Hostility occasioned the Philistines to assemble an Army against the Men of Judah, who, dreading their Resentment, persuaded Samson to let them bind him with new Cords, and deliver him into their Hands. This being done, his Enemies seeing him bound gave a great Shout; on which the Spirit of the Lord coming upon Samson, and he snapped the Cords as if they had been burnt Flax, and finding the Jaw-Bone of an Ass, he fell upon

upon the Philistines, and therewith slew a thousand Men.

Samson's carrying away the Gates of Gaza, when the Inhabitants had shut him in with an Intent to kill him, was another Instance of his surprizing Strength;
of which, however, he was at length
deprived by the Cunning and Treachery of Delilah, and so became a Prey to his mortal Enemies. The Lords of the Philistines

lissines applied themselves to this Prostitute, for whom they knew Samson had a great Affection, offering her large Rewards if she could prevail upon him to tell her where his extraordinary Strength lay. Three several Times he amused her with wrong Accounts, and thereby escaped the Snare into which she would have drawn him; but at last, quite tired with her repeated Sollicitations, he told her all his Heart: There has not come a Razor upon mine Head; but if I be shaven, then my Strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other Man. Hereupon Delilah, having lulled him to sleep upon her Knees, caused the Seven Locks of his Head to be shaven off, and his Strength went from him; and then giving Notice to the Philistines, they seized him, put out his Eyes, carried him to Gaza, and there bound him with Fetters of Brass; and he did grind in the Prison-house.

In a little Time, as Samson's Hair began to grow again, his Strength also returned, which he had soon an Opportunity of exerting to the Destruction of his Enemies; For the Lords of the Philistines being assembled to offer Sacrifice to their God Dagon for having delivered Samson into their Hands, when their Hearts were merry they sent for him out of Prison to make them Sport, placing him between the two Pillars that supported the Temple;

Temple; which Samson perceiving, he took hold of them, one with his Right Hand, and the other with his Left; and calling upon God to assist him that once to be avenged of the Philistines for the Loss of his Eyes, and desiring to die with them, he bowed himself with all his Might, and the House fell upon the Lords, and upon all the People therein; So the Dead which he slew at his Death, were more than they which he slew in his Life.

Next after Samson, the High-Priest Eli became Judge of Israel; in whose Days Samuel was born, and called to be a Prophet of the Lord. During Eli's Administration, the Israelites were overcome by the Philistines, who in one Battle killed thirty thousand of them, (Eli's two Sons being among the Slain) and carried away the Ark of the Covenant; which melancholy News being brought to Eli, he fell backward from his Seat, and broke his Neck, after he had judged Israel forty Years.

Under his Successor Samuel, the Philistines were subdued, the Cities they had taken were restored, and the Israelites were happy during his wise and just Administration. But Samuel growing old, and entrusting the Government to his Sons, they walked not in their Fathers Way, but turned after Lucre, took Bribes, and perverted Judgment. Hereupon the People grew dissatisfied, and desired Samuel to make them a King to judge them like other Nations, to go out before them, and to fight their Battles. This displeased Samuel, and he prayed unto the Lord; who commanded him to comply with their Request: And Accordingly, by divine Appointment, (in the Year 1095) he annointed Saul King over Israel.

So long as Saul continued obedient to the Commands of God by his Prophet Samuel, Success attended his Arms, and his his Enemies fell before him : But at last, being ordered utterly to destroy the Amalekites together with their Cattle, and having spared Agag their King, and some of the best of their Sheep and Oxen, God was so provoked at his Disobedience, that he determined to transfer the Kingdom from him to David : to anoint whom (in the Year 1063) Samuel was sent to Bethlehem.

At this Juncture an Occasion offered to signalize David's Valour in the Face of all Israel : For Saul being at War with the Philistines, and both Armies lying encamped near each other, there came forth a Champion from the Camp of the Philistines of a gigantic Stature and prodigious Strength, who for forty Days to ether bid Defiance to the whole Army of the Israelites, challenging them to send out a Man to fight him, and put an End to the War by single Combat. The Name of this mighty Giant was Goliath, whose Bulk and Aspect struck such a Terror into the Israelites, that they fled whenever he appeared.

Now it happened that David, who kept his Father's Sheep, was sent to the Camp with Provisions for his three Brethren, then in the Service of Saul; and finding what a Panic run through the Army, and that the King had offered to give his own Daughter to the Man that should kill the monstrous Goliath, he expressed his Inclination to engage this terrible Adversary. Hereupon his eldest Brother was very angry with him, accusing him of Pride and Haughtiness of Heart, and of neglecting his proper Business, the Care of his few Sheep in the Wilderness. David, however, was not discouraged by this Rebuke; but talking to other Persons on the same Subject, he was at length taken Notice of, and introduced to Saul; who perceiving that he was but a mere Stripling, represented to him him how unequal a Match he was for a Man of Goliath's Strength and military Experience; To obviate this Objection, David said to the King, Thy Servant kept his Father's Sheep, and there came a Lion and a Bear, and took a Lamb out of the Flock; and thy Servant slew both the Lion and the Bear: And this Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the Armies of the living God: Adding, to shew that his Trust and Confidence was in God alone, The Lord that delivered me out of the Paw of the Lion, and out of the Paw of the Bear, he will deliver me out of the Hand of this Philistine.

Saul, animated with David's Story and Resolution, ordered his own Armour to be put upon him; which being undoubtedly too heavy for David, and his Dependence being solely upon the Divine Assistance, he put it off again, chusing to meet the Giant with only his Sling and his Staff. When Goliath saw David advance to him thus accoutred, he cursed him by his vain Gods, and said; Am I a Dog, that thou comest to me with Staves? Come hither, and I will give thy Flesh unto the Fowls of the Air, and to the Beasts of the Field. Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a Sword, and with a Spear, and with a Shield; but

I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of Hosts, the God of the Armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. And when the Philistine drew drew nigh, David put his Hand into his Bag, and took thence a Stone and slang it, and smote the Philistine on his Forehead, so that he fell upon his Face to the Earth. Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a Sling and a Stone, and ran and stood upon him, and slew him with his own Sword, and cut off his Head. And when the Philistines saw their Champion was killed, they fled, and the Israelites pursued them, and obtained a compleat Victory.

The Success attending this hazardous Exploit, having gained David the Applause and Affection of the People, Saul grew jealous of him, and determined to destroy him: But Jonathas, the Son of Saul, was so sensible of his great Merit, that he loved him as his own Soul, and gave him Notice from Time to Time of all the Evil intended against him by his Father. However, to avoid Saul's Resentment, David was obliged to fly into the Wilderness; whither Saul pursued him in vain, the Almighty being his Protector.—Whilst Affairs were in this Situation the Prophet Samuel died.

The Lord having now forsaken Saul, and his Army being entirely routed by the Philistines, his three Sons slain, and himself wounded; in these desperate Circumstances he put an End to his Life by falling on his own Sword, and his Armour Bearer followed his Example. This melancholy News greatly affected David, as appears by his pathetic Lamentation for the Loss of Saul, and more especially of Jonathan his beloved Friend, 1 Sam. 1.

After this deplorable Fate of Saul and his Family, God was pleased to establish the Throne of David over Israel and Judah. He was a Prince of extraordinary Valour and Wisdom, a Prophet, and an excellent Poet, the greatest Part of the Psalms being of his composing. He subdued

dued the Philistines, the Moabites, the Syrians, and other Nations; and defeated some dangerous Conspiracies that were formed against him, particularly that of his own Son Absalom; for his rebellious Forces were routed by those of David in the Wood of Ephraim, and on the Tree, where he was afterwards killed by Joab. In a Word, having reigned forty Years, and triumphed over his foreign and domestic Enemies, he died in a good old Age, leaving his Crown and Kingdom to his Son Solomon.

Absalom's Hair being entangled in the Boughs of an Oak, his Mule went from under him, and left him hanging on

CHAP. XV.

SOLOMON'S Wisdom. His Judgment between the two Harlots. The Building and Dedication of the Temple. History of the Prophets ELIJAH and ELISHA. JEZEBEL eaten by Dogs.

IN the Year before Christ 1015, Solomon ascended the Throne of Israel; to whom, according to his Request, God was pleased to grant such a Degree of Wisdom, that there was none like him, either before or after him; and also made him superior in Riches and Honour, to all his Predecessors or succeeding Princes.

It

It happened that an Opportunity soon offered of shewing his extraordinary Understanding and Judgment, which gained him great Reputation; for two Harlots, who lived in one House by themselves, being brought to bed within three Days of each other, the Child of one of them dying, the Mother changed the dead one for the live one, while the other was asleep, and insisted strongly that it was her own. The Case being brought before Solomon, and both the Women claimed the living Child, he ordered it to be divided between them with a Sword; to which the pretended Mother assenting, the real one desired the King to let the other have it whole, rather than see her Infant destroyed. From this natural Tenderness, Solomon rightly judging her to be the true Mother of the Child, ordered it to be delivered to her accordingly.

The Almighty having reserved to the peaceable Reign of Solomon the building a Temple to his Name, that Prince began the important Work in the Year of the World 2992, 480 Years after the Departure of the Israelites out of Egypt, and 1010 before the Coming of Christ. In this great undertaking he was assisted by Hiram King of Tyre, his Father's ancient Friend, who sent him vast Quantities of Cedar and other Timber for that pose. In a Word, he erected a most stately Fabrick, and embellished it with

Pur-

Variety of fine carved Work, profusely overlaid with Gold: But for its Dimensions, curious Workmanship, and the Richness of its Utensils and Ornaments,
we must refer to the Account given of it in the Holy Scripture, (1 Kings vi, vii.)
not having Room in this small History

to describe its wonderful Splendor, Beauty and Magnificency.

Solomon, having finished this glorious Structure, summoned together a numerous Assembly of Israelites, and caused the Ark of the Lord to be carried into an Apartment peculiarly allotted for its Reception, by far the most rich and splendid of the whole Building, called the Holy of Holies; and then, with the utmost Solemnity of Prayer and Sacrifice, dedicated the Temple to the only true God; and having made a Feast for all Israel, which lasted fourteen Days, he dismissed them joyful and glad of Heart.

This great and wise Prince, after a glorious Reign of forty Years, was succeeded (in the Year before Christ 975) by his Son Rehoboam; through whose Folly ten Tribes of Israel revolted to Jeroboam, and himself ruled over two Tribes only, which were those of Judah and Benjamin. Thus there were two King-

Kingdoms formed; the one called the Kingdom of ISRAEL, which comprehended the ten revolted Tribes; the other called the Kingdom of JUDAH, which consisted of the two Tribes that remained faithful to Rehoboam.

The new King of Israel, fearing that his Subjects would return to the Obedience of Rehoboam King of Judah, if they should go to Jerusalem to worship God in the Temple, and to offer their Sacrifices there, set up two golden Calves, and prevailed with the People to worship them under the Name of the God of Israel; so that in the Reign of Jeroboam Idolatry was established, and all his Successors kept up the same false Worship. However, it pleased God to send several Prophets to the Ten Tribes, to turn them from their Sins, and to preserve the Knowledge of himself amongst them. The most eminent of these Prophets was Elijah, who prophesied against against Ahab, the Wickedness of the Kings of Israel; assuring him, that for some Years to come there should be neither Dew nor Rain in the Land.

In this Time of Drought, and of the Famine consequent thereupon, God commanded Elijah to hide himself by the Brook Cherith, and caused the Ravens to bring him Bread and Flesh every Morning and Evening; and he drank of the Brook

Brook, till at length it was quite dried up for Want of Rain.

Afterwards, by the divine Command, Elijah went to a Widow at Zarephath, whom he found gathering Sticks, and desired her to fetch him a little Bread and Water; upon which the poor Woman told him her Distress: I have not a Cake, (said she) but a Handful of Meal in a Barrel, and a little Oil in a Cruse; and behold, I am gathering Sticks to make a Fire to dress it for me and my Son, that we may eat it, and die. Notwithstanding this, the Prophet ordered her to bring him a little Cake; and promised her, that her Barrel of Meal and Cruse of Oil should not fail, till the Lord sent Rain upon the Earth: Which was accordingly fulfilled.

Whilst Elijah sojourned with the Widow, her Son died; and God was pleased, at the Supplication of the Prophet, to restore him to Life, to the great Joy of his Mother, who at first was ready to impute his Death to the Presence of Elijah. But on seeing him alive again, Now by this I know (said she) that thou art a Man of God, and that the Word of the Lord in thy Mouth is Truth.
of

When the Drought had continued several Years, and the Famine raged in Samaria, God commanded Elijah to go and shew himself to Ahab, promising to send Rain upon the Earth; which he did abundantly, at the Prayer of the Prophet upon Mount Carmel. Soon after this, his Life being threatned by Jezabel, Ahab's Wife, because he had destroyed the Prophets of Baal, he retired into a Wilderness, where the Lord appeared to him, and ordered him to anoint Elisha, to succeed him as a Prophet. Elijah having found Elisha at Plough, threw his Mantle over him; and Elisha taking Leave of his Father and Mother, followed Elijah.

About

About the Year 896, the two Prophets came together to the River Jordan, the Waters whereof Elijah smote with his Mantle, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they went both over on dry Ground. Now Elijah being sensible of his approaching Removal, asked Elisha what he should do for him before he was taken away: To which Elisha answered, Let a double Portion of thy Spirit be upon me. And as they went on

and

and talked, there appeared a Chariot of Fire, and Horses of Fire, and parted them asunder, and Elijah went up by a Whirlwind into Heaven. When he was out of Sight, Elisha took up the Mantle that fell from him, and returning to Jordan, he divided the Waters with it, and passed over on dry Land as before.

It soon appeared that the Spirit of Elijah rested on Elisha, and the Miracles that he wrought gained him great Esteem and Reputation. Now there came a certain Woman to Elisha, saying, Thy Servant my Husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy Servant did fear the Lord; and the Creditor is come to take unto him my two Sons to be Bondsmen. And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the House? And she said Thine Handmaid hath not any Thing in the House, save a Pot of Oil. He then commanded her to borrow a great Number of Vessels of her Neighbours, and pour into

into them till they were full, which she did accordingly; and found such a vast Increase of her Oil, that she sold Part of it to discharge her Debt, and had enough left for the Subsistence of herself and her Children.

After this Eliza restored the Shanmites' Son to Life, cured Naaman of his Leprosy by sending him to wash in Jordan, smote Gibazi with the same Disorder, caused Iron to swim, and wrought many many other Miracles. In the Year 884.

 he sent a young Prophet to anoint Jehu
 King over Israel, and to declare to him
 the Will of God that the whole Family of Abab should be destroyed. Whereupon Jehu being proclaimed by the Soldiers, and having killed King Joram, Abab's Son, entered Jerusalem in Triumph;
 and seeing the wicked Jezabel looking out of the Palace Window, he ordered her to be thrown down, and some of her Blood

Blood was sprinkled on the Wall, and the Dogs afterwards devoured her Body, (agreeable to the Prediction of the Prophet Elijah) as a Punishment for her Wickedness, particularly the Murder of Naboth.

CHAP. XVI.

JONAH in the Whale's Belly. SHADRACH, MESHACH, and ABERNAGO, cast into a fiery Furnace. DANIEL in the Lion Den. The Jewish History brought down to the Birth of CHRIST.

IN the Reign of Jehoaſaph, King of Judah, about the Year before Christ 826. (or, according to others, in the Reigns of Aſariah King of Judah, and Jeroboam II. King of Israel, about the Year 808) God commanded the Prophet Jonah to go to Nineveh, the chief City of the Aſſyrians, and proclaim to its wicked Inhabitants their approaching

Destruction: But instead of obeying the Word of the Lord, Jonah went down to Joppa, and there took shipping for Tarshish. Hereupon it pleased God to send a great storm, and there was a mighty Tempest in the Sea, which exceedingly terrified the Mariners, who expected to perish every Moment. In this Danger they agreed to cast Lots, to know for whose Cause the Evil was come upon them; and the Lot fell upon Jonah. The Prophet then ingenuously acknowledged, that himself was the Occasion of their Distress, and desired them to throw him overboard; which they did, though not without much Reluctance, and the Sea ceased from her raging. Now the Lord had prepared a great Fish to swallow up Jonah, and he was in the Belly of the Fish three Days and three Nights; in which dismal Situation he sincerely repented, and prayed to the Lord; who thereupon caused the Fish to cast up Jonah on the dry dry Land. After this Deliverance the Prophet obeyed the Divine Command, went to Nineveh, and denounced its Overthrow; but the Ninevites repenting in Sackcloth and Ashes, and turning from their evil Ways, God was pleased to spare that great City, in which were more than six score thousand Persons who could not discern between their Right Hand and their Left.

In the Year 788, in the Reign of Azariah or Uzziah King of Judah, Amos prophesied; and probably Joel prophesied in the same Reign. In his Reign likewise, and in those of Joram, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, lived the Prophets Isaiah, Hosea and Micah.

In the fifth Year of Hezekiah, King of Judah, and the ninth of Hosea King of Israel (before Christ 721) Sennacherib King of Assyria took Samaria, and carried the ten Tribes captive into his own Kingdom, from whence they were dispersed into divers Countries, and have never since been settled in their own Land. Thus ended the Kingdom of Israel, after it had subsisted, separate from that of Judah, 254 Years, under twenty Kings of ten several Families. In Hezekiah's Reign Nahum prophesied.

In 599, Jehoiakim King of Judah surrendered Jerusalem to Nebuchadnezzar, who carried him and the chief of the People

People captive to Babylon: And in 588, the eleventh Year of Zedekiah (who succeeded Jehoiakim) Nabuchadnezzar took Jerusalem after a long Siege, burnt the Temple and the whole City, razed the Walls, and carried away the Jews into Captivity. Thus was the Kingdom of Judah destroyed, 468 Years after the Beginning of David's Reign, 388 Years from the Division of the Tribes, and 134 Years after the Destruction of the Kingdom of Israel. Obadiah prophesied under Zedekiah.

Jeremiah and Zephaniah were Contemporaries; the former of whom prophesied forty-five Years, viz. from the 13th of Josiah, to the 5th of the Babylonish Captivity. Habakkuk is also supposed to have prophesied in the Reign of Josiah.

Ezekiel, who was carried away captive with Jehoiakim to Babylon, began to prophesy in the fifth Year of his Captivity:

tivity: And Daniel, who was carried to Babylon in his Youth, in the third Year of Jehoiakim (607), prophesied there to the Year 534, in all 73 Years, and lived to be about the Age of 94.

Whilst Daniel was a Captive at Babylon, God was pleased to give him an extraordinary Degree of Wisdom, and he had Understanding in Dreams and Visions far superior to all the Magicians and Astrologers of that Kingdom. This was a Means of his Advancement to great Honours; for Nebuchadnezzar having forgot one of his Dreams, which troubled him very much, and consulted his Magicians to no Purpose, ordered all the Wise Men of Babylon to be put to Death: But Daniel desiring a little Time to consider of it, the Lord revealed the Secret to him in a Night Vision; and being brought to the King, he related to him his Dream, and explained its Meaning; whereupon Nebuchadnezzar made made him great Presents, and appointed him Ruler over the whole Province of Babylon. At Daniel's Request, his three fellow Captives, Shadrach, Misbach and Abednego, were also entrusted with the Affairs of the Kingdom.

These three Jews (whose real Names were Hananiab, Misbael, and Azariab) having absolutely refused to worship a golden Image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up, he was so enraged against them, that he ordered them to be cast into a fiery Furnace, heated seven times hotter than usual. The King's Command was obeyed; but the most high God, whom they feared and worshipped, was with them and preserved them in the Midst of the Fire, and they came out of the Furnace without an Hair of their Heads singed, neither were their Coats changed, nor had the Smell of Fire passed on them.

This wonderful Deliverance extorted from from Nebuchadnezzar, who was an Eyewitness of it, an Acknowledgment of the Power of the God of Israel: But some Years after, being proud of his Victories, and boasting of the Magnificence of his Buildings, he fell distracted, and (as Daniel had foretold when he interpreted another of his Dreams) he was driven from the Society of Men, and did eat Grass as Oxen, and his Body was wet with the Dew of Heaven, till his Hair was grown like Eagles Feathers, and his Nails like Birds Claws. After seven Years thus spent among the Beasts of the Field, his Reason returned to him, and he was restored to his Kingdom, praising and honouring the King of Heaven, all whose Works are Truth, and his Ways Judgment, and those that walk in Pride he is able to abase.

In the Year 538, Belshazzar King of Babylon made a great Feast for his Nobles, and caused the Vessels of the House of the Lord to be fetched, that Nebuchadnezzar his Grandfather had brought away from Jerusalem, out of which he himself, his Princes, his Wives and Concubines drank Wine to the Glory of his Idols, and the Dishonour of the true God. But in the Midst of all his Jollity, a Hand appeared, and wrote on the Plai-
of

ster of the Wall, MENE MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN; which the King observing, he was greatly terrified, and sent sent for his Chaldean Astrologers and Magicians to read the Writing, and give him the Interpretation of it; but they not being able to do either, Daniel was called, who read and interpreted the Writing; whereupon he was publicly proclaimed the third Ruler in the Kingdom. The same Night Belsazzar was slain; and the Assyrian Monarchy, which had stood, from its Foundation by Nimrod, 1650 Years, was seized by Darius the Mede, and the Persian Monarchy founded by Cyrus.

Daniel's Greatness under Darius raising Envy in some of the principal Courtiers and Officers they contrived his Ruin, but finding nothing to accuse him of with respect to his Management of public Affairs, they persuaded the King to sign a Decree, that for thirty Days no Petition should be made to any God or Man, but to himself only. This Command Daniel disobeyed, by making Supplication plication to his God as usual, and for so doing he was cast into a Den of Lions ; but the King himself going to the Den

the next Morning, and finding that Daniel had received no Hurt, he caused his Accusers to be cast into the same Den, whom the Lions presently devoured : And he published a Decree, that all Persons throughout his Dominions should reverence and fear the God of Daniel.
The

The Babylonish Captivity lasted seventy Years, according to Jeremiah's Prediction; which Time being expired, Cyrus King of Persia gave the Jews leave (in the Year 536) to return to their own Country, under the Conduct of Zerubbabel, and rebuilt the Temple of Jerusalem. But in this they were interrupted by the neighbouring Nations, and the Work was delayed till the Time of Darius Hystaspes (the same with Abasutrus) who ordered the Temple to be rebuilt, and the Worship of God restored; to which Undertaking the Jews were pressinglly exhorted by the Prophets Haggai and Zachariab, the former of whom prophesied that the Glory of the second Temple should be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent Structure, but in regard the Messiah should one Day honour it with his Presence. In the 6th Year of Darius the Temple was finished, and dedicated with with great Joy and Abundance of Sacrifices; and the Passover was also celebrated.

In the 20th Year of Artaxerxes (445) Nebemiab obtained Leave of the King to rebuild the Walls of Jerusalem, in which City he likewise restored Order and Civil Government. Malachi, the last of the Prophets, was cotemporary with Nebemiab, and prophesied after the rebuilding of the Temple.

The Jews being returned into their own Country, were for some Time subject to the Kings of Persia, and afterwards to the King of Syria. They were exposed to divers Persecutions, of which the last and most cruel was that of Antiochus, who plundered and prophaned the Temple, and made Use of Torments to force the Jews to renounce their Religion, as may be seen in the History of the Maccabees. These Cruelties obliged Mattathias and many other Jews to to enter into a Covenant together for the Preservation of their Religion and Liberty. They gained many Victories by the Courage and Conduct of Judas Maccabæus, and Jonathan, both Sons of Mattathias; and having recovered their Liberty, they re-established the Exercise of their Religion, and were a long Time under the Government of the Priests who succeeded Judas and Jonathan, and took the Title of Kings. At last the Jews fell under the Dominion of the Romans, who made Herod (the Son of Antipas or Antipater) King of Judea; and it was this Herod that reigned when our blessed Saviour came into the World.

Six Months before Christ, John the Baptist was born, who was sent to prepare the Way for the Reception of the Messiah.

PART

PART. II.

The NEW TESTAMENT.

CHAP. I.

The Birth of CHRIST. The ANGEL appears to the Shepherds. The Adoration of the MAGS. CHRIST disputes with the Doctors in the Temple.

THE Time being at Hand, when God had determined to send his only begotten Son into the World, (A M. 404) to take upon him human Nature, and to dispense the Gospel of Salvation to lost Mankind; the Angel Gabriel was sent to a Virgin named Mary (espoused to a Man whose Name was Joseph, of the House of David), whom he addressed in these Words:

Hail thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among Women. The Virgin being surprized at *this Salutation, the Angel bid her not be afraid; assuring her, that she, tho'

a Virgin, should conceive by the Overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, and bring forth a Son, and call his Name Jesus, who should reign over the House of Jacob,
and of whose Kingdom there should be no End.*

End. And Mary said, Behold the Handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy Word.

At this Time, Augustus Caesar having ordered a general Taxation to be made throughout the Roman Empire, Joseph, with Mary his espoused Wife (then big with Child) went to Bethlehem to be taxed: And whilst they were there, the Time of her Delivery being come, she brought forth her first-born, and wrapped him in Swaddling-Cloaths, and laid him in a Manger, because there was no Room for them in the Inn. But though no earthly Pomp attended the Birth of this Prince of Peace, yet the Angel of God proclaimed the joyful News to some Shepherds who were watching over their Flocks by Night, and the Glory of the Lord shone round about them. And when the Angel had delivered his glad Tidings, Unto you is born this Day, in the City of David, a Saviour, which is Christ, the Lord (whom, for a Sign, he told them they should find wrapped in Swaddling Cloaths, lying in a Manger) on a sudden he was joined by a Multitude of the heavenly Host, praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth Peace, Good-will towards Men.

The Shepherds going to Bethlehem, and finding every Thing true that the Angel had said, they declared publicly what

what they had heard and seen, and returned praising and glorifying God. And when eight Days were accomplished for the circumcising of the Child (according to the Law of Moses) he was named Jesus, which signifies a Saviour. He is also called EMMANUEL (Isaiah xii. 14. Matt. i. 23.) which signifies God with us, and is the same in Substance as the Name Jesus.

When the Days of the Virgin's Purification were over, the Parents of the Blessed Jesus brought him to Jerusalem, to his own Temple, to present him to the Lord, and to offer such a Sacrifice as the Mosaic Law required. Thus was fulfilled that of Malachi iii. 1. The Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to his Temple; and that of Haggai ii. 7. 9. I will fill this House with Glory, saith the Lord of Hosts. The Glory of the latter House shall be greater than that of the former; that is than of Solomon's Temple destroyed by
and Nebu-

Nebuchadnezzar. To clear this Prophecy it is observed, that granting the second Temple, in respect to the outward Ornaments Herod bestowed upon it, to exceed that of Solomon (as the Jews boldly affirm); it was yet inferior to his, on account of its wanting the five standing Miracles or Glories, viz. 1. The Ark, in which were the two Tables of the Covenant; the golden Pot of Manna; and Aaron's Rod that blossomed; 2. The Shekinah, or divine Presence, manifested by a visible Cloud resting over the Mercy-Seat; 3. The Sacred Fire which came down from Heaven, and burnt continually upon the Altar; 4. The Urim and Thummim; and 5. The Spirit of Prophecy. From whence it is plain, that by the greater Glory of the latter House is meant the personal Presence of Christ, the Light of the World, the Brightness of his Father's Glory, and the express Image of his Person.

Three

Three learned Eastern Kings (called Magi or Wise Men) guided by an extraordinary Star, came to Bethlehem and worshipped Jesus, bringing with them

Offerings of Gold, Frankincense, and Myrrh. This Star was in a threefold Respect miraculous: First, as to Place, being nearer the Earth than any other Star: Secondly, In its Motion, as moving directly forwards, and not circularly:

Thirdly, In that it shone by Day as well as by Night.

Soon after this, Herod gave the cruel Orders for killing all the Children in Jerusalem and its Neighbourhood, from two Years old and under, in Hopes of destroying the Infant Jesus; but Joseph being warned by the Angel of the Lord in a Dream, fled with him and his Mother into Egypt, where they continued till the Death of Herod; and then, by God's Appointment, they came and dwelt in Nazareth, a City of Galilee.

Now the Parents of the holy Jesus went every Year to Jerusalem at the Feast of the Passover; and when he was but twelve Years old, being with them at that Solemnity, he tarried behind in Jerusalem unknown to his Parents, who had gone a Day's Journey homewards before they missed him, not doubting but he was in the Company; but having enquired after him amongst their Kindred and Acquaintance,

the HOLY BIBLE.

121

tance, and not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem under very great Concern, where, after three Days Search, they found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the Doctors, both hearing them and asking them Questions; and all that heard him were astonished at his Understanding and Answers. Jesus then went home to Nazareth with his Parents, to whom he was obedient, and was brought up up by them in a poor and low Estate;

but he increased in Wisdom and Stature,
and in Favour with God and Man.

CHAP. II.

Christ baptized by John. Enters upon his Ministry. His Sermon on the Mount.

JOHN, the Forerunner of our Lord, having baptized great Numbers of Jews, the blessed Jesus himself (in order

on the Jordan, and was baptized to fulfil all Righteousness) condescended to be baptized by him in the River Jordan. And when he came out of the Water, the Heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a Dove upon him; and a Voice came from Heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Here the Mystery of the most blessed and glorious TRINITY was displayed: God the Father, by a Voice from Heaven; God the Son, in his human Nature; and God the Holy Ghost, under the Appearance of a Dove.

After this, Jesus was led by the Spirit into the Wilderness, where he fasted forty Days and forty Nights, and overcame all the Temptations of Satan. He was now in the thirtieth Year of his Age, when he began to enter upon his Ministry, preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, and exhorting all to Repentance. The Truth of his Doctrine he confirmed by many and stupendous Miracles, the first first of which was his turning Water into Wine at a Marriage in Cana of Galilee. He went about healing the Sick, curing the Lame, restoring the Blind to Sight, casting out Devils, and even raising the Dead to Life; thereby unquestionably proving his Divine Mission, that he was the promised and expected Messiah, who was sent into the World to make an Atonement for the Sins of Mankind, and to purchase for all those who believed in him, and followed his most holy Example, a Title to eternal Life. Our blessed Lord having gained a great Number of Disciples, he chose twelve from amongst them, whom he named Apostles, viz. Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the Son of Alphaeus, Simon called Zelotes, Judas the Brother of James, and Judas Iscariot. These he sent forth in his Name to preach the Gospel, and to work Miracles; and to these

these he more particularly addresses himself in his most excellent Sermon on the Mount, contained in the 5th, 6th, and 7th Chapters of St. Matthew, which may be looked upon as a Summary of the Christian Doctrine, and at which the Multitude who heard him were astonished, for he taught them as one having Authority, and not as the Scribes.

The

The divine Preacher begins his Sermon with Blessings on the Poor in Spirit; on those that mourn; on the Meek; on those who hunger and thirst after Righteousness; on the Merciful; on the Pure in Heart; on the Peace-makers; and on those who are persecuted for Righteousness Sake. He tells his Disciples, they are the Salt of the Earth, the Light of the World, a City set upon a Hill; and exhorts them, Let your Light so shine before Men, that they may see your good Works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven. He commands us, if we are at Variance with any one, to endeavour at a Reconciliation before we make our Address to the Throne of Grace. He absolutely forbids Swearing, and the revenging of Injuries received; and adds, Give to him that asks thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away. He teaches us, that we are not only to love our Neighbour, but even our

our Enemies; to bless them that curse us, to do good to them that hate us, and to pray for them that despitefully use and persecute us: And this from the Example of our heavenly Father, who maketh his Sun to rise on the Evil and on the Good, and sendeth Rain on the Just and on the Unjust. Nor are we to imitate the Divine Being in this Particular only, but in all his inimitable Perfections: Be ye perfect as your Father which is in Heaven is perfect.

Our Saviour proceeds to instruct us, that we are not to give Alms, nor offer up our Prayers in public Places, as the Hypocrites do, merely to be seen of Men; but both are to be done as privately as possible, and then our Father, who sees in secret, will reward us openly. Nor are we in our Prayers to use vain Repetitions, or think that we shall be heard for our much speaking; but we are to pray after this Manner: "Our Father, which
" art

" art in Heaven, hallowed be thy
 " Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy " Will be done in Earth, as it is in " Heaven. Give us this Day our daily
 " Bread. And forgive us our Tref-
 " passes, as we forgive them that tref-
 " pass against us. And lead us not in-
 " to Temptation; but deliver us from " Evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and
 " the Power and the Glory, for ever
 " and ever, Amen." The same Rule is to be observed with respect to Fasting;

 We are not to act the Hypocrite by putting on a sad Countenance, and disfiguring
our Faces that we may appear unto Men to fast; but rather to avoid external Shew and recommend ourselves, by Sincerity of Heart, to the Notice of our heavenly Father. Our Lord farther advises us, to lay up Treasure in Heaven: advising us that where our Treasure is, there will our Heart be also. And as it is impossible for us to serve God and Mammon, he exhortis

horts us not to be over-anxious about what we shall eat, or what we shall drink, or wherewithal we shall be cloathed; for surely we cannot distrust that Providence which provides for the Fowls of the Air, who neither sow nor reap, nor gather into B urns; and which so cloaths the Lillies of the Field, that neither soil nor spin, that even Solomon in all his Glory was not arrayed like one of these. To this he sub-joins a Promise, that if we seek first the Kingdom of God and his Righteousness, all these Things (i. e. Food and Raiment, the Necessaries of Life) shall be added unto us.

In the next Place, Christ forbids us to judge rashly one of another, and condemns that Partiality to which we are all too liable, of being quick-sighted and censorious with respect to the Faults of others, while we overlook or palliate our own. He then gives this encouraging Exhortation to Prayer, Ask, and it shall be

be given you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be open unto you. For what Man is there of you, whom if his Son ask Bread, will he give him a Stone? Or if he ask a Fish, will he give him a Serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good Gifts unto your Children, how much more shall your Father which is in Heaven give good Gifts to them that ask him? To which he adds this universal and golden Rule in Morality, What ye would that Men should do to you, do ye even so to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets. Our Lord proceeds, Enter ye in at the strait Gate; for wide is the Gate, and broad is the Way that leadeth to Destruction: but strait is the Gate, and narrow is the Way which leadeth unto Life. He cautions his Followers against false Prophets, who (he tells them) may be known by their Fruits. And now drawing to a Conclusion of his divine Discourse, he exhorts them to be Doers of the Will of God, and

and not Hearers only; comparing the former to a House built upon a Rock, which is able to withstand the Fury of Floods and Tempests; and the latter to a House built upon the Sand, which cannot resist the Violence of the Storm, but falls in the Time of Trial, and great is the Fall thereof.

C H A P. III.

CHRIST restores the Widow's Son to Life. He stills the Tempest. JOHN the Baptist beheaded. Five Thousand fed with five Loaves and Two Fishes. CHRIST walks on the Sea, and St. PETER comes to meet him.

WHEN our blessed Saviour had ended his Sermon on the Mount he went into Capernaum, where he healed the Centurion's Servant, on Account of the extraordinary Faith of his Master. And the next Day going to Nain, in Company with many of his Disciples, when

K 3

when he came near the Gate of the City, he met a great Number of People who were attending the Corpse of a Widow's Son to the Place of his Interment, Our Lord, having Compassion on the distressed Woman, bid her not weep; and touching the Bier he commanded the young Man to arise; which he did accordingly, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his Mother. And there came a Fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, saying, That a great Prophet was risen up amongst them; and That God had visited his People.

Not long after our Saviour wrought this Miracle, he went into a Ship with his Disciples, and as they sailed along, he fell asleep. In a short Time a violent Tempest arose, insomuch that the Vessel was covered with the Waves; and the Disciples, apprehending themselves in utmost Danger, ran to their Master and awoke him, saying, Lord save us, we perish. To which he replied, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little Faith! And having rebuked the Winds and the Sea, a Calm immediately ensued; at which they were all astonished, (as well they might) saying one to another, What Manner of Man is this, that even the Winds and the Sea obey him?

About this Time Herod (the Tetrarch of Galilee and Petraea) hearing of the Miracles of the Messed Jesus, concluded they were wrought by John the Baptist, whom he had beheaded, and whom he supposed to be risen from the Dead. This Herod (we find) had married Herodias, his Brother Philip's Wife; and the Baptist having boldly reprov'd him for it as an incestuous Alliance, Herodias resented it so highly, that she prevailed with her Husband to cast him into Prison and would have had him put to Death, but

but Herod was afraid to proceed to that Extremity, knowing that John was held in great Esteem by the People, as a good Man and a Prophet. However, Herodias at length found an Opportunity of accomplishing her wicked Design; for her Daughter having danced before Herod on his Birth-day, he was so extremely pleased, that he rashly promised with an Oath to give her whatever she would ask, even to the Half of his Kingdom. The young

young Woman, being before-hand instructed by her Mother, desired Herod to give her the Baptist's Head in a Charger: Upon which the King was exceedingly sorry; but for the Sake of his Oath, he sent an Executioner, who beheaded John in Prison, and brought his Head to the Damsel, who carried the bloody Present to her cruel Mother.

The Fame of our Saviour's Miracles drew such a Concours of People about him wheresoever he went, that it was difficult for him to avoid their Company, though ever so desirous of Retirement. Of this we have an Instance, when he departed privately with his Disciples into a desert Place; for the People being apprised of his Design, he found a great Multitude got thither before him, at the Sight of whom he was moved with Compassion, because they were as Sheep not having a Shepherd: And he spake unto them of the Kingdom of God, and healed them that had had Need of healing. Towards the Evening his Disciples came to him, and put him in Mind. that as the Day was far spent, it would be proper for him to dismiss the Multitude, that they might go into the neighbouring Towns and Villages, and buy themselves necessary Refreshments : But Jesus said, They need not depart, give ye them to eat ; And his Disciples telling him they had only five Loaves and two Fishes, he ordered them to be brought ; and having caused the People to sit down upon the Grass, he took the Loaves and Fishes, and looking up to Heaven, he blessed and brake them, and gave to his Disciples, and the Disciples to the Multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled ; and they took up twelve Baskets full of the Fragments that remained. The Number of Men that miraculously fed was about five thousand, besides Women and Children.

Jesus

Jesus having ordered his Disciples to get into a Ship, and cross over the Water before him, staid behind to dismiss the People to their respective Habitations; which being done, he went up into a Mountain to pray: And when he had finished his Devotions, in the Night-time he followed his Disciples, walking towards the Ship on the Surface of the Sea. At this strange Sight they were exceed-

exceedingly terrified, thinking it had been a Spirit : But Jesus called to them, Be of good Cheer, it is I, be not afraid. To which Peter answered, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee in the Water. And he said, Come : Whereupon Peter quitted the Vessel, and walked on the Water to go to Jesus ; but the Wind being high, and finding himself beginning to sink, he cried out, Lord save me ; on which our Saviour immediately stretched forth his Hand to his Assistance, and thus upbraided him, O thou of little Faith, wherefore didst thou doubt ? And when they were got into the Ship, the Wind ceased, to the Astonishment of the Disciples, who came and worshipped Jesus, saying, Of a Truth, thou art the Son of God.

C H A P. IV.

*The good SAMARITAN. The Prodigal Son.
DIVES and LAZARUS.*

AS the narrow Bounds of our little History will not permit us to give an Account of all the Miracles of our Saviour; so neither can we recite the many excellent Parables he delivered for the Instruction of the People, but shall select a few of those that are most apt to strike upon and affect the Minds of Youth, for whose Use this Epitome of the sacred Writings is principally intended.

A Lawyer having asked Jesus this Question, Who is my Neighbour? received an Answer in the following Parable; which teaches us, that to love our Neighbour is to be charitable, compassionate, ready to relieve the Distressed, and universally benevolent to the whole Race of Mankind. “ A certain Man (says our “ Lord,

“ Lord) went down from Jerusalem to “ Jericho, and fell among Thieves, who “ stripped him of his Raiment, and “ wounded him, and departed, leaving “ him half dead. And by Chance there “ came a Priest that Way, and when “ he saw him he passed by on the other “ Side. And likewise a Levite came “ and looked on him, and passed by on “ the other Side. But a certain Sama- “ ritan, as he journeyed, came where

“ he

“ he was; and when he saw him, he “ had Compassion on him, and bound “ up his Wounds, pouring in Oil and “ Wine, and set him on his own Beast,
 “ and brought him to an Inn, and took “ Care of him. And on the Morrow, “ when he departed, he took out two “ Pence, and gave them to the Host,
 “ and said unto him, Take Care of him,
 “ and whatsoever thou spendest more,
 “ when I come again I will repay thee.
 “ Which now of these three, thinkest “ thou, was Neighbour unto him that “ fell among Thieves? The Lawyer “ readily answered, He that shewed Mercy
 “ on him. Then said Jesus unto him,
 “ Go, and do thou likewise.”

The Parable of the Prodigal Son is an admirable Lesson to those who have forsaken their Heavenly Father, and spent their Youth in vicious Courses and the Pursuit of vain and imaginary Pleasures, teaching them plainly, that no true Happiness

pinests is to be found, till they return unto God by a sincere Repentance, who is then willing to pardon their Transgressions, and receive them again into his Favour,

“ A certtain Man had two Sons, the “ youngest of whom having received his “ Portion, took his Journey into a far “ Country, and there wasted his Sub“ stance with riotous Living; and when “ he had spent all, there arose a Famine
“ in the Land, and he began to be in “ Want; which made him submit to the “ mean Employment of keeping Swine
“ in the Field, and he would gladly have “ filled his Belly with the Husks they “ fed upon. In this State he began to “ reflect upon his Folly, and said, How “ many hired Servants of my Father's “ have Bread enough and to spare, and I “ perish with Hunger! I will arise and go “ to my Father, and will say unto him Fa- “ ther, I have sinned against Heaven, and “ before

“ before thee, and am no more worthy to “ be called thy Son; make me as one of thy “ hired Servants. And returning home
 “ in this penitent and submissive Man“ ner, he was received by his Father
 “ with open Arms, who fell on his Neck
 “ and kissed him, ordered him to be “ arrayed in the best Apparel, and the “ fatted Calf to be killed: For this my “ Son

“ Son (said he) was dead, and is alive
 “ again; he was lost, and is found.”

In the Story of Dives and Lazarus is strongly set forth the Duty of those whom Providence has blessed with Riches, and the Punishment that waits them if they indulge themselves in Luxury and Intemperance, whilst they neglect to relieve the Poor and Afflicted: And at the same Time the virtuous Man has a comfortable Assurance, that, let his sufferings in this World be ever so great, he shall be rewarded with an Eternity of Bliss hereafter. “ There was a certain

“ Rich Man, (says our Saviour) who was “ cloathed in Purple and fine Linen, and “ fared sumptuously every Day. And “ there was a certain Beggar, named “ Lazarus, who was laid at his Gate
 “ full of Sores, and desiring to be fed “ with the Crumbs that fell from the “ rich Man's Table; moreover, the

L

“ Dogs

“ Dogs came and licked his Sores. And “ it came to pass that the Beggar died,
 “ and was carried by the Angels into “ Abraham's Bosom: The Rich Man
 “ also died, and was buried; and in Hell
 “ he lifted up his Eyes, being in Tor“ ments, and seeth Abraham afar off,
 “ and Lazarus in his Bosom. And he “ cried, and said, Father Abraham, have “ Mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he “ may

“ may dip the Tip of his Finger in Water
“ and cool my Tongue; for I am tormented
“ in this Flame. To which Abraham “ answered, Son, remember that thou in “ thy Life-time receivest thy good Things,
“ and likewise Lazarus evil Things; but “ now he is comforted and thou art tor“ mented.”

C H A P. V.

LAZARUS raised from the Dead. CHRIST rides to Jerusalem on an Ass. The Institution of the Lord's Supper. CHRIST betrayed by JUDAS, carried before CAIAPHAS, and denied by PETER.

TO the Miracles of our Blessed Lord already mentioned, we shall add one of the last and most remarkable that he wrought, viz. that of raising Lazarus from the Dead. This Lazarus was the Brother of Martha and Mary, whom the Scripture tells us Jesus loved. He had been interred four Days, and was supposed to have begun to putrify, when Christ came to give this signal Instance of his Divine Power. Having ordered the Stone to be removed that was laid over the Grave, after a short Ejaculation to Almighty God, he cried with a loud Voice, Lazarus, come forth! And immediately the dead Man came forth, though he was

was bound Hand and Foot, and had his Face tied about with a Napkin; from which they soon loosed him, and let him go. And many of the Jews, who beheld this astonishing Miracle, believed in Jesus.

The Time of the Passover now drawing nigh, Jesus sent two of his Disciples to fetch an Ass, which he told them they would find tied at a certain Place; and the Ass being brought accordingly, the Lord of the Universe condescended to ride on this contemptible Animal in a Kind of humble Triumph to Jerusalem, attended by a Multitude of People, who spread their Garments in the Way, and cut down Branches from the Trees and strewed them in the Road, crying out as they passed along, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord; Hosanna to the highest. When he came to Jerusalem, he wept over it, and foretold its Destruction; and going into the Temple, he turned out the Buyers and Sellers, overthrew the Tables of the Money-changers, and healed the Blind and the Lame.

In the Evening of the first Day of Unleavened Bread, the necessary Preparations having been made, Jesus sat down with his twelve Apostles to eat the Pass-over. And as they were eating, Jesus took Bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and

and gave it to his Disciples, and said,
Take eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: This do in Remembrance of me.
 And he also took the Cup after Supper,
 and gave Thanks, and gave it to them,
 saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the Remission of Sins. At the same Time yesus gave his Disciples a Lesson

son of Humility, by washing their Feet, and wiping them with a Towel where-with he was girded.

Our Lord, after eating this last Supper with his Disciples, was betrayed that very Night by Judas, according to his own Prediction: For having retired into the Garden of Gethsemane to Prayer, (where in his Agony he sweat Drops or Clots of Blood) the Traitor brought thither

ther a Number of armed Men ; and saluting his Master with a Kiss, (which was the Signal agreed on) they seized on the Blessed Jesus, whose Disciples then forsook him, and led him to the Palace of Caiaphas, the High-Priest, where the Scribes and Elders were assembled. Peter, being willing to see the Event, followed afar off ; and coming to the High-Priest's Palace, he sat down by the Fire in the Hall amongst the Servants ; one of whom, looking earnestly at him, said, Thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth : But Peter denied it, saying, Woman, I know him not. After a little while, another saw him, and said, This is one of them : But he denied it again. And not long afterwards, another confidently affirming the same Thing, he began to curse and swear, saying, I know not the Man of whom ye speak : And immediately the Cock crew. This brought to Peter's Remembrance the Words that Jesus had said said unto him, Before the Cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Whereupon he went out and wept bitterly.—A most remarkable Instance of human Frailty ! For when our Lord forewarned Peter of this shameful Fault, he promised in the strongest Manner, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee : And To likewise said all the Disciples ; who nevertheless forsook him and fled in the Time of Trial.

CHAP. VI.

The Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension of CHRIST.

THE next Morning after Christ was examined by Caiaphas, the Jews led him to Pontius Pilate, the Roman Governor of Judea, and accused him of perverting the Nation, of calling himself a King, and of forbidding to pay Tribute to to Cæsar. But Pilate, finding no Fault in him, did all he could to save him from the Malice of the Jews; and it being a Custom to release a Malefactor on Occasion of their great Feast, he proposed to chastise him and let him go. This, however, would not satisfy his inveterate Enemies; who cried out loudly, Crucify him! Crucify him! Whereupon Pilate, seeing he could not prevail to save him, took Water, and washed his Hands before the Multitude, saying, I am innocent of the Blood of this just Person; see ye to it. To which the Jews replied with this dreadful Imprecation, His Blood be on us, and our Children.

Thus wearied by their Importunities and Clamour, Pilate released Barabbas, a Murderer, and having caused Jesus to be scourged, delivered him to the Jews to be crucified. Then the Soldiers, having put a Crown of Thorns upon his Head, mocking him, spitting on him, and offering him other Indignities, they carried him to a Place called Golgotha, where they crucified him between two common Malefactors. And there was Darknes over all the Land from the sixth to the ninth Hour; and the Veil of the Temple was rent in twain, the Earth did quake, and the Rocks rent: As if all Nature suffered, when the Lord of Life and Glory expired upon the Cross.
and

One

One of the Thieves that were crucified with the Blessed Jesus became a Penitent on the Cross, and found Mercy, receiving this gracious Promise from his dying Saviour, This Day shalt thou be with me in Paradise. But we ought by no Means to look upon this extraordinary Case as an Encouragement to a Death-bed Repentance: For, as a great Divine observes, “ We read of one Man’s “ being pardoned at the Hour of Death “ that none may despair, and of but one “ that none may presume.”

When the Even was come, Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable Counsellor and Disciple of Jesus, went to Pilate, and begged his Body; and having wrapped it in fine Linen, he laid it in his own new Sepulchre, which he had hewn out of a Rock, and rolled a great Stone to the Mouth of the Sepulchre. Now the Chief Priests having suggested to Pilate, that the Disciples of Jesus might steal away away his Body in the Night, and make the People believe he was risen from the Dead, he granted them a party of Soldiers, and they went and made the Sepulchre sure, (as they thought) sealing the Stone, and setting a Watch. But, notwithstanding all these vain Precautions, on the third Day after his Interment our

Lord arose triumphant from the Grave;
at which Time there was a great Earthquake,

quake, and the Soldiers trembled, and became as dead Men, at the Appearance of an Angel, whose Countenance was like Lightning, and his Raiment white as Snow. In Remembrance of our Saviour's glorious Resurrection on the first Day of the Week, the Christian Church, authorized by Apostolical Example, keeps that Day holy instead of the Jewish Sabbath.

The Blessed Jesus, to put his Resurrection out of all Doubt, shewed himself alive by many infallible Proofs. He was first seen by Mary Magdalen, and other devout Women; then by Peter and John; then by the Eleven; and after that by above five hundred Brethren at once: And having remained on Earth forty Days, and spoke to his Apostles of the Things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, he assembled them on Mount Olivet and there assured them, that they should in a short Time receive the Holy Ghost, and be Witnesses to him, both in Jerusalem,

lem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria,
and unto the uttermost Parts of the Earth.
Soon after this, whilst they beheld, he was taken up, and a Cloud received him out of their Sight. And as they were looking steadfast towards Heaven, (not perhaps without some Uneasiness at the Loss of their dear Lord and Master) they saw two Men stand by them in white Apparel, who

who gave them this comfortable Assurance: The same Jesus, which is taken up from you into Heaven, shall come in like Manner as ye have seen him go into Heaven. Upon which they returned to Jerusalem, to wait for the Accomplishment of their Lord's Promise.

CHAP. VII.

The Descent of the HOLY GHOST. ANANIAS and SAPPHIRA struck dead for telling a Lie. STEPHEN stoned.

THE Apostles, after our Lord's Ascension, being assembled at Jerusalem with the other Disciples, chose Matthias by Lot to take Part of the Ministry and Apostleship, from which Judas had fallen by Transgression; and Matthias was accordingly numbered with the Eleven Apostles. And on the Day of Pentecost, (to which our Whitsuntide

M

answers,

answers, being the same Distance from Easter that Pentecost was from the Jewish Passover,) the tenth Day after Christ's Ascension, being all met together in one Place, there suddenly came a Sound from Heaven, as of a rushing mighty Wind, and it filled all the Houses where they were sitting. And there appeared upon them cloven Tongues, like as of Fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other Tongues, as the Spirit gave them Utterance. The Rumour of this Prodigy drew together a mixed Multitude of several Nations: And, to their great Amazement, every Man heard the Apostles speak in his own Language the wonderful Works of God. On this memorable Occasion, by the powerful Preaching of St. Peter, about three thousand Souls were added to the Church of Christ.

By this plentiful Effusion of the Holy Spirit, according to the Divine Promise, the Apostles were enabled to work Miracles in the Name of Jesus, and converted many Thousands to the Christian Faith, who constantly followed them, living all in common, and wanting nothing; for those who had Estates and Possessions sold them, and brought the Money to the Apostles, who divided it

M 2

amongst

amongst the Believers in Proportion to their several Necessities. But a certain Man named Ananias, and his Wife Sapphira, having sold some Land, brought only Part of the Money to the Apostles, pretending it was the Whole. This being a most wicked Endeavour to impose upon the Holy Ghost by a Lie, Peter severely rebuked Ananias for it, who thereupon fell down dead at his Fect, and was carried out and buried. His Wife coming in soon after, and not knowing what had happened, persisted in the same Story ; and being also reprimanded by Peter, fell down and expired, and was carried to her Grave by those very Men who had just done the same Office for her Husband. — A terrible Warning to all Liars, Hypocrites, and pretended Zealots in the Cause of Religion !

The Number of Christians increasing at Jerusalem, it was thought proper (by the Advice of the Apostles) to chuse seven Deacons, who should distribute the Alms of the whole Church to the Widows and poor Sort of Believers. Stephen, one of the Deacons, having confounded some Persons that disputed with him, they falsely accused him of Blasphemy, and brought him before the Council ; where the good Man, full of Faith and of the Holy Ghost, so boldly repre-

reprehended the Obstiancy of the Jews,
and their murdering the blessed Jews,
that the were cut to the Heart, and gnashed on him with their Teeth. And they cast him out of the City, and stoned him, calling upon

God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my Spirit. Nor did the holy Martyr pray for himself only, but (after the Example of his great Master) for his Persecutors also ;

also ; crying with his last Breath, Lord lay not this Sin to their Charge.

CHAP. VIII.

*The miraculous Conversion of St. PAUL.
St. PETER delivered out of Prison by an
Angel. St. PAUL shipwrecked.*

THE Death of the first Martyr Stephen was followed by a great Persecution of the Church at Jerusalem, insomuch that the Believers were scattered abroad throughout the Regions of Judea and Samaria. But among all the Persecutors of the primitive Christians, no one exerted himself against them with so much Fury and Bitterness as Saul, who was also called Paul, and became afterwards the great Apostle of the Gentiles.
He, (as the Scripture strongly expresses
it) breathing out Threatnings and Slaughter against the Disciples of the Lord, obtained

tained Letters from the High-Priest and the Council to the Synagogues of Damascus, that he might apprehend all who professed the Religion of Jesus in those Parts, and bring them bound to Jerusalem. But when he came near to Damascus, there suddenly shone round about him a Light from Heaven; and he fell on the Earth, and heard a Voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: It is hard for thee to kick against the Pricks. At the same Time being struck with Blindness, his Attendants were obliged to lead him to Damascus, where, after three Days, he was restored to Sight by Ananias, and preached the Gospel in that City with great Boldness, to the Astonishment of those who knew the Design of his coming thither, and what a bloody Persecutor he had been of all that called on the Name of Jesus.

After Saul's Conversion, the Churches had Rest throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria: But in a fews Years Time, King Herod Agrippa observing the extraordinary Progress of the Gospel, raised up a Persecution against the Christians, and killed James the Brother of John with his Sword. He also caused Peter to be apprehended and imprisoned, intending tending after Easter to bring him forth to the Jews, who were pleased with his cruel Proceedings. But the very Night before Herod intended to have delivered him up to his Enemies, an Angel of the Lord was sent to Peter in Prison, who was chained, and sleeping between two Soldiers. At the Command of the Angel, Peter arose, and the Chains fell off from his Hands; and having passed two Wards,

Wards, they came to the Iron Gate, which opened of its own Accord at their Approach; and Peter being now at Liberty, the Angel departed. Thus it pleased God to deliver his Servant out of the Hands of Herod, and to frustrate the bloody Design and Expectation of the Jews.

As to the Apostle Paul having escaped from Damascus (where the Jews lay wait to kill him) he came to Jerusalem, and spake boldly in the Name of Jesus. From thence he went to Tarsus, travelled through Syria and Cilicia, and having visited divers other Parts of Asia (chiefly in Company with Barnabas) performing many Miracles, and converting vast Numbers to the Christian Faith, he was at last apprehended by the Jews at Jerusalem, and would have been put to Death, had it not been for the chief Captain of the Romans, who sent him under a strong Guard to Felix, the Roman man Governor of Judea, then residing at Cæsarea. Felix, finding the Jews unable to prove any thing worthy of Death against him, treated him with Lenity; notwithstanding which, when Portius Festus succeeded him in the Government, being willing to shew the Jews a Pleasure, he left Paul in Prison.

This great Apostle, as the most certain Way to escape the Malice of the Jews, who were implacably bent to destroy him, at last appealed to Cæsar himself; and being put on board a Ship, with other Prisoners, in order to be sent to Rome, they were overtaken by a violent Storm, whereby they were shipwrecked on the coast of Melita, (now Malta) the Vessel being beat to Pieces, but every one got safe to Shore. The Islanders treated them with great Humanity, and made a Fire to warm them; but St. Paul having gathered a bundle of Sticks, and laid them on the Fire, a Viper a Viper came out and fastened on his Hand, which made them conclude he was a wicked Man, whom Vengeance would not suffer to live, though he had escaped the Shipwreck. However, when they saw him shake off the Viper into the Fire, without receiving any Harm, they changed their Minds, and said he was a God. The Apostle having continued in this Island three Months, curing the

the Sick, and healing all Manner of Diseases, sailed from thence, and arrived safe at Rome, where he was a Prisoner at large, and lived two whole Years in his own hired House, preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching those Things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, without any Molestation.

After this, St. Paul, obtained his Liberty, preaching the Gospel in Spain, and then founding a Church at Crete, constituted Titus the Bishop of it. Then taking Timothy with him, he visited the Churches in Judea, and other Parts; and having ordained Timothy Bishop of Ephesus, and visited the Corinthians, and the Brethren in Asia and at Troas, he returned to Rome, where meeting with Peter, they joined in preaching the Gospel both to Jews and Gentiles, till they were cast into Prison, by Order of Helius the Governor, and offered up their Lives as a Testimony of the Truth. St. Paul

was

was beheaded, as being a Roman Citizen ; but St. Peter, not being entitled to that Privilege, was crucified.

CHAP. XI.

Of the LAST JUDGMENT.

AS a proper Conclusion of this History of the Bible, we shall add a few Words relating to that tremendous Day, the Day of Judgment ; a Time when all Mankind must appear before the Judge of Heaven and Earth, and give an Account of their Actions in this Life, whether they are good or evil. This Time in holy Scripture is termed, the great and terrible Day of the Lord ; the Day when the Sun shall be darkened, and the Moon shall not give her Light, and the Stars shall fall from Heaven, and the Sinners in Sion shall be afraid. At this Day CHRIST shall descend from Heaven in his own and his Father's Glory, with a Shout, with the Voice of the Archangel, and with the

*the Trump of God; on which awakening Summons all the Inhabitants of the Grave shall come forth, the Living shall be changed, and all shall appear before his awful Tribunal, who will judge the World in Righteousness, With him there will be no Respect of Persons; the Monarch and the Peasant will be upon a Level: Small and great shall stand before him, the Books shall be opened, and every Man shall be judged according to his Works. Then will the Righteous be carried by Angels of Light to their Seat of Bliss in Heaven, there to enjoy unspeakable and everlasting Happiness and the Wicked shall be cast into Hell, into a Place of Woe and Misery, to dwell with the Devil and his Angels, where *the Worm dies not, and the Fire is not quenched.

N I

William
Edwards.

His Book,

June 10.

1782

